DAILY GAZETTE.

THE AWKWARD SQUAD.—That means all of us as we were at first. Having been enlisted only one week, our first experience in drill was a very trying one, but amusing enough—to the initiated. It is a hazardous undertaking for a raw recruit to attempt to order arms; the butt of the piece falls heavily to the ground or on his own or his neighbors toes, just as chance directs it. About-face involves a serious risk of a downfall. Gentlemen with large feet and weak ankles get them tangled, and having a hazy idea of which is which, are unable to untangle them without the aid of the drill-master. After some stupid blunder, the command is gived "As you were!" whereupon some of us take positions we never were in before, and which it would be impossible for us to take in our own volition; and others, lacking confidence in themselves, and afraid of being laughed at, stand, like wooden men, waiting to be moved. But the most terrible experience is in attempting the double-quick. The man behind me uses my heels and the calves of my legs to wipe his feet on; the man beside me keeps time on my ribs with his elbows, and the gun of the short man in front knocks off my cap, narrowly escaping my head. If I stoop for my cap, a dozen or more men will run over me, so I keep on, minus the cap, out of wind, and damaged as to my temper. At this juncture, the man in the rear stumbles, and as he falls, a gleaming sabre bayonet comes down, and I gain a fundamental knowledge of its efficiency as a weapon. It doesn't tear my coat tail, for economical Uncle Sam has not furnished us with that appendage to our raiment; but it makes an unsightly wound in the basement of my trowsers. I am pronounced unfit for duty, and seclude myself from public gaze till I have repaired the fissured garment. But the mysteries of the manual and evolutions become plain in time, and the awkward squad becomes efficient and well-drilled.

A CALIFORNIA SENATOR ON THE WAR.—Senator McDougall, of California, made a patriotic speech at the Union meeting held at Utica, New York, last week. He said:

"This is no common battle in which we are engaged. The southern idea is to have slaves to maintain the whites in war and council; so that all the white men may go to war, unless they are too old, and then they take them for counsel. This explains the strange fact that they, with eight millions, have been able to bring superior forces into the field to ours—though we are twenty millions. That will not do. We must overpower them by numbers. The first thing, to that end, is to secure a union of all men who love the republic.

"We owe much to the republic. I certainly do. Beginning as poor as the poorest boy in Oneida county, I have grown to a man who at least holds a high office. It is this freedom for all that is the glory of our institutions, that makes us a great nation. We have a great deal to fight for. When the wisest man that ever lived in the tide of time was arraigned by the people of Athens and condemned to an ignominious death, his friends surrounded him on the night before he was to drink the fatal hemlock, and said, 'Socrates, the way is open to you to escape, and find a home in some island of the Peloponessus.' 'No,' said the philosopher, 'I have raised children and studied the divine philosophy, and learned many arts, and I owe all to the laws of Athens; I will not violate, I will obey those laws. Otherwise I should be as barbarous as the men of Sicily.' Is there one in this great republic, ocean bound, who does not owe as much to its laws? If ever there was any government to live for, or to die for, it is the republic of the United States of North America."

SOLDIER'S WORK-BAG.—A captain of infantry, referring to the wants of soldiers in an encampment, says:

"On the first departure of troops from Boston, there was but one man out of seven hundred that was provided with any facilities for mending clothes, and in all that had gone since then, not more then twenty are thus provided. About these little conveniences for campaigning, which are greater necessities even than uniforms and shirts, nobody will ever think who has not the recollection of the wants described by a soldier in actual service."

Some thoughtful and care-taking ladies, in consultation with those who have had experience of the wants of an encampment, have suggested the following as part of a soldier's out-fit:

The work-bag may be made of new gingham or calico double, with compartments for each article, so that they may be easily got at when time and need press; containing one pair of round-pointed scissors, one paper carpet needles, one skein blue or grey yarn, three hanks strong black linen thread, one spool strong brown thread, two skeins coarse black silk, three dozen porcelain shirt buttons, three dozen black suspender buttons, a piece of wax, one piece of gray twilled tape, a needle case made of new delaine, small, plain and strong, filled with needles and half a paper of pins.

Every article should be good of its kind, and the thread, yarn and silk nicely wound. No fancy work or ornament required.

There are bits of new calico and delaine in every house suitable for the bag and needle case, and the contents as above cost about eighty cents.

CONFEDERATE PRISONERS.—There are now about two hundred rebel prisoners confined in this city, including those of a political character. The old capital is still used as a prison, and has been fitted up with many conveniences. The prisoners are allowed books and newspapers, and are otherwise well and humanely treated. No communication is allowed with them except by special permit of the provost marshal. Prisoners of war and political prisoners are confined in different quarters. Some of the latter, who have lately been released on the oath of allegiance, have been required to enter into bonds not to enter the rebel states or communicate with any one residing in them during the war unless permitted by the secretaries of state or war.—Washington correspondence New York World.

VERY NOBLE.—Thomas Francis Meagher was offered the clerkship of New York worth many thousands a year. If he would have accepted, the nomination would have been tendered him by all parties. But he declined, that he might go untrammelled to the field of battle. But the gallant soldier has a future. When peace shall have been reinstated, Thomas Francis Meagher shall be among those whom the people will delight to honor.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their sizes, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully Illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the twofold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are; certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

DAILY GAZETTE.

The Awkward Squad.—That means all of us as we were at first. Having been enlisted only one week, our first experience in drill was a very trying one, but amusing enough—to the initiated. It is a hazardous undertaking for a raw recruit to attempt to order arms; the butt of the piece falls heavily to the ground or on his own or his neighbors toes, just as chance directs it. About-face involves a serious risk of a downfall. Gentlemen with large feet and weak ankles get them tangled, and having a hazy idea of which is which, are unable to untangle them without the aid of the drill-master. After some stupid blunder, the command is gived "As you were!" whereupon some of us take positions we never were in before, and which it would be impossible for us to take in our own volition; and others, lacking confidence in themselves, and afraid of being laughed at, stand, like wooden men, waiting to be moved. But the most terrible experience is in attempting the double-quick. The man behind me uses my heels and the calves of my legs to wipe his feet on; the man beside me keeps time on my ribs with his elbows, and the gun of the short man in front knocks off my cap, narrowly escaping my head. If I stoop for my cap, a dozen or more men will run over me, so I keep on, minus the cap, out of wind, and damaged as to my temper. At this juncture, the man in the rear stumbles, and as he falls, a gleaming sabre bayonet comes down, and I gain a fundamental knowledge of its efficiency as a weapon. It doesn't tear my coat tail, for economical Uncle Sam has not furnished us with that appendage to our raiment; but it makes an unsightly wound in the basement of my trowsers. I am pronounced unfit for duty, and seclude myself from public gaze till I have repaired the fissured garment. But the mysteries of the manual and evolutions become plain in time, and the awkward squad becomes efficient and well-drilled.

A California Senator on the War.—Senator McDougall, of California, made a patriotic speech at the Union meeting held at Utica, New York, last week. He said: "This is no common battle in which we are engaged. The southern idea is to have slaves to maintain the whites in war and counsel; so that all the white men may go to war, unless they are too old, and then they take them for counsel. This explains the strange fact that they, with eight millions, have been able to bring superior forces into the field to ours—though we are twenty millions. That will not do. We must overpower them by numbers. The first thing, to that end, is to secure a union of all men who love the republic.

"We owe much to the republic. I certainly do. Beginning as poor as the poorest boy in Oneida county, I have grown to a man who at least holds a high office. It is this freedom for all that is the glory of our institutions, that makes us a great nation. We have a great deal to fight for. When the wisest man that ever lived in the tide of time was arrainged by the people of Athens and condemned to an ignominious death, his friends surrounded him on the night before he was to drink the the fatal hemlock, and said, 'Socrates, the way is open to you to escape, and find a home in some island of the Peloponessus.' 'No,' said the philosopher, 'I have raised children and studied the divine philosophy, and learned many arts, and I owe all to the laws of Athens; I will not violate, I will obey those laws. Otherwise I should be as barbarous as the men of Sicily.' Is there one in this great republic, ocean bound, who does not owe as much to its laws? If ever there was any government to live for, or to die for, it is the republic of the United States of North America."

Soldier's Work-Bag.—A captain of infantry, referring to the wants of soldiers in an encampment, says:

"On the first departure of troops from Boston, there was but one man out of seven hundred that was provided with any facilities for mending clothes, and in all that had gone since then, not more then twenty are thus provided. About these little conveniences for campaigning, which are greater necessities even than uniforms and shirts, nobody will ever think who has not the recollection of the wants described by a soldier in actual service."

Some thoughtful and care-taking ladies, in consultation with those who have had experience of the wants of an encampment, have suggested the following as part of a soldier's out-fit:

The work-bag may be made of new gingham or calico double, with compartments for each article, so that they may be easily got at when time and need press; containing one pair of round-pointed scissors, one paper carpet needles, one skein blue or grey yarn, three hanks strong black linen thread, one spool strong brown thread, two skeins coarse black silk, three dozen porcelain shirt buttons, three dozen black suspender buttons, a piece of wax, one piece of gray twilled tape, a needle case made of new delaine, small, plain and strong, filled with needles and half a paper of pins.

Every article should be good of its kind, and the thread, yarn and silk nicely wound. No fancy work or ornament required.

There are bits of new calico and delaine in every house suitable for the bag and needle case, and the contents as above cost about eighty cents.

Confederate Prisoners.—There are now about two hundred rebel prisoners confined in this city, including those of a political character. The old capital is still used as a prison, and has been fitted up with many conveniences. The prisoners are allowed books and newspapers, and are otherwise well and humanely treated. No communication is allowed with them except by special permit of the provost marshal. Prisoners of war and political prisoners are confined in different quarters. Some of the latter, who have lately been released on the oath of allegiance, have been required to enter into bonds not to enter the rebel states or communicate with any one residing in them during the war unless permitted by the secretaries of state or war.—Washington correspondence New York World.

Very Noble.—Thomas Francis Meagher was offered the clerkship of New York—worth many thousands a year. If he would have accepted, the nomination would have been tendered him by all parties. But he declined, that he might go untrammelled to the field of battle. But the gallant soldier has a future. When peace shall have been reinstated, Thomas Francis Meagher shall be among those whom the people will delight to honor.

GREAT REDUCTION —IN— The Prices —OF— SINGER & CO.'S STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully Illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are; certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Southwestern Campaign.

The recent action of the Cherokee Indians, in joining the rebels will doubtless call the serious attention of the government to our southwestern frontier. These Indians were the most loyal, as well as the most civilized of any of the tribes, removed from the south. Since they, or a majority of them, have united their fortunes with the rebel cause, we have no friendly tribe, in that region to rely upon. The whole territory is to be reconquered. No delay should be permitted in asserting the authority of the government over these tribes, and especially the Cherokees. They number about twenty-five thousand, and their territory forms the southern boundary of Kansas. It is not surprising, therefore, that the people of the latter state are calling loudly upon the general government for protection, as they are threatened upon two sides of their territory—on the south by the Indians and on the east by the Missourians. It is probable, also, that the wild tribes of the plains, west of Kansas, are more or less tinctured with the insanity of this rebellion. The fate of Kansas, after all the sacrifices of her people, may, therefore, be still considered in doubt, unless speedy help be sent to them.

The most effectual means of ridding both Kansas and Missouri of the secessionists is to send a well appointed army into Arkansas and the Indian territory. Without aid from the south, it is evident that the Missouri rebels must speedily subside—without a secession force in Missouri no harm can be done to the people of Kansas. The only route from the south to Missouri now practicable to the rebels, is through western Arkansas and the Indian territory.

It would, therefore, be good policy to strengthen Fremont's army with more mounted rangers, and let them proceed immediately to the Indian territory and take possession of it. On their way they could establish a fort in southwestern Missouri, and leave men and a plenty of artillery for its defence. This would prevent a further irruption of rebels in that direction from Arkansas.

The army then might advance to Fort Smith, on the Arkansas river, which is not more than seventy-five miles from the southern boundary of Missouri. This is also on the eastern boundary of the Indian territory, and once in our possession, we could command the latter territory and western Arkansas. There are fifty thousand half civilized Indians in the territory west of Arkansas, many of whom hold slaves, and it is through the latter interest that they have been lured into rebellion. They should be taught a lesson in this respect that will be remembered in all time.

The occupation of Fort Smith, with a powerful army, and its thorough protection by heavy artillery, once accomplished, it would be a point of offensive operations against the rebels of Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico. We should also be in a situation to chastise the wild tribes of Camanches and Kiowas, who roam the plains westward, and who are beginning to feel that they have no masters. The rebels of New Mexico and Arizona might also be attended from this point.

Looking, therefore, to the future control of our southwestern empire by the general government, as well as the present protection of the loyal people of the southwest, it is evident that the army which is now in pursuit of Price can be used for a far greater and more important object. It ought never to return until the starry banner waves on a line of forts from Missouri to Galveston.

Whether the general government has sufficient thought for the west to provide such an expedition with the necessary outfit, or whether the presidential candidates in the cabinet will permit Fremont to lead it, remains to be seen.

The Eighth Regiment in Chicago.

The Eighth Wisconsin regiment, which for some two months has been in temporary quarters at Camp Randall, Madison, Wisconsin, left their camp at 8 o'clock on Saturday morning, and, after a brief parade through the streets of the capitol city, took the cars of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway for Chicago, en route for St. Louis. The arrival here had been heralded by the daily papers, and the streets of our city were crowded with people awaiting the advent of what had been announced as the crack regiment of Wisconsin. The crowd at the depot was immense, and the people composing it were not to be disappointed in beholding an imposing display.

The Eighth Wisconsin is as fine, if not a finer, body of men than the First, whose advent here all will recollect. The men are heavy, well-built, and inured to the labors of the farm, the shop, and the lumbering country. It is armed with muskets of the best pattern, and uniformed and equipped in the same perfect style which has characterized the bodies previously passing through this place for the east, the Eighth being the first regiment our sister state has furnished for Missouri. Their discipline is good, and the manner in which the manœuvres were performed while marching through the streets last evening would have been creditable to veteran troops. They have received pay for the services already rendered, and left in good condition mentally and physically, there being but six or eight on the sick list. It took $12,000 to square their account with the government.—Times.

The Tribune says:—

The regiment numbers one thousand and fifty men, and, as a whole, is, we think, as fine looking, well officered, and well drilled, as any regiment which has passed through our city. The men are well built, muscular fellows, and apparently in fine spirits at the prospects of a brush with the rebels. A noticeable feature among them was the Chippewa Eagles, Captain Perkins, a company of first class, stalwart fellows; and the live American Eagle, which they brought with them, was an object of much curiosity. He is a majestic bird, well trained and docile, permitting people to pat his regal head and smooth down his feathers without resistance.

When marching, the eagle is carried at the head of the company, elevated on a perch at the top of a pole. The eagle was caught on the head waters of the Chippewa river, by the Chippewa Indians. Captain Perkins' company take it with them to the war. The men were offered a large sum for it in Madison, but they will not part with it. They swear it shall never be taken by the enemy. No doubt the Chippewa Eagles and their pet will be heard of again.

The Tribune is mistaken when it says that at Janesville "the regiment was supplied with coffee and eatables by the Northwestern road." They were supplied by the people of Janesville and vicinity.

GOING BACK BEFORE THE FLOOD.—The Albany Atlas and Argus, in its extracts from the speeches of Daniel S. Dickinson of a year ago. The regency clique are reproducing those extracts now to damage Mr. Dickinson before the people. What donkeys these regency tricksters are, and what fools they must imagine the people to be, in undertaking to humbug them by applying the political issues of a reign of peace to the contingencies of an armed rebellion, menacing the very capital of our country! A few weeks more, however, and there will be an end of this miserable rump of the Albany regency. It goes out like a tallow candle, flickering and sputtering, and with an unpleasant stench; but a little water will quench it.—New York Herald.

☞ It is reported that 50,000 troops are to be sent from the east to the west. We hope they will give us back our western men. They have experience in frontier life, and would be far more efficient than soldiers from the cities of New York and Philadelphia.

TAKING THE VEIL.—Three young ladies of Green Bay were initiated on Sunday last into the monastic order of St. Dominick.—The ceremonies are described as being very solemn.

NOT INDICTED.—Mrs. Priest, one of the parties to the shooting affair in the town of Leeds, Columbia county, has been discharged. The grand jury found no bill against her, as they considered she was strictly acting in self-defence.

Last Night's Report.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.

W. J. Packard was arrested here to-day on an order from the state department, as being an alleged emissary from Richmond, where he was connected with Sloat & Co. Packard has represented himself in Cincinnati as a refugee from the south, and lately visited Washington, it is said, on the pretence of giving valuable information to the federal authorities, and had while there ample opportunity to discover the position and strength of our forces. He was sent to Fort Lafayette this evening.

The schooners Ocean Wave, Harriet Ryan and Mecca have been brought as prizes from Hatteras Inlet to the navy yard.

THE OYSTER TRADE.—The Baltimore Sun says:

"The oyster business of Baltimore exhibits a visible diminition in the number of vessels employed in bringing the bivalves to this port the present season, owing to the blockade of the Virginia waters, from whence the best kinds are obtained, and the strict surveillance exercised over all vessels navigating Maryland waters. As a consequence a rise in prices may be expected soon. Last year about three hundred thousand bushels were brought to this city, thereby creating a trade valued at two million dollars. Over four hundred schooners and pungys were engaged in the business of their transportation upon the Chesapeake and its tributaries. Undoubtedly there is a falling off this season, but the trade has for a number of years past annually yielded employment to between four thousand and five thousand men, in the various capacities of boatmen, carters, shockers, tinners, packers, carpenters, laborers, &c.

For the past ten years the exportation of oysters to such important points in the west as Pittsburg, Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati, has been almost exclusively monopolized by Baltimore. The oysters for transportation to these points are generally shocked, put in gallon cans, and hermetically sealed; after which they are closely packed together in boxes holding a dozen cans, which is filled with sawdust, and, during the mild season, with ice, to keep them perfectly fresh and pure. During the winter season they are transported in the shell, being sent in barrels.

The oyster business exists only eight months in the year, the law prohibiting the traffic from May to September. Notwithstanding all the drawbacks of the times, the prospect of the oyster business is fair, and no great scarcity need be apprehended."

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.

The refugees from Norfolk, which arrived to-day on the steamer Louisiana, previous to leaving had been closely searched to prevent their bringing any newspapers, but one passenger secured a Norfolk Day Book, which had the dispatches from New Orleans of the attack on Wilson's Zouaves at Santa Rosa Island. The rebels, a thousand in number, stormed the works in the night, and in an hour had spiked all the guns which were in position, destroyed all the tents but the hospital, and captured ammunition, rations and stores.

Major Israel Vodges, of the United States Second Artillery, recently at Fortress Monroe, was taken prisoner.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 13.

Yesterday afternoon, about fourteen miles south of Rousseau's advance, and eight miles from the rebel encampment on Green River, a detachment of forty men of the 39th Indiana regiment, attacked 300 rebels, half of them cavalry, without loss, killing five, wounding three, and driving the whole rebel force beyond Bacon Creek.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 12.

The Evening News learns upon unquestionable authority that Messrs. Breckinridge, Preston, Johnston, Deshony, Williams, Haws, Moore, and other secession notables, are organizing a large rebel camp at Prestonburg, Floyd county. It says they have a force of six or seven thousand men, whom they are drilling eight hours per day, and that they are alarming the mountaineers by circulating incredible stories as to the intention of the government. The News asks the government to place promptly the requisite force in the mountains, around which the Union men may rally.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 13.

Secretary Cameron and Adjutant General Thomas passed here at 5.30 P. M., today on a special train for St. Louis. The secretary reviewed the troops at Syracuse and Tipton to-day.

FORT MONROE, Oct. 12.

A party of New York Zouaves, while cutting fuel, were attacked by a rebel scouting party, and driven in with a loss of one wagon. Two rebel steam tugs appeared at the same time on James River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.

The Norfolk Day Book, received this morning, contains dispatches received from New Orleans, giving an account of a surprise and an attack made on Col. Billy Wilson's Zouaves, on Santa Rosa Island, on the 8th inst. By this account it appears that detachments from several Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama regiments made a landing in the night, and drove in Wilson's pickets. Shortly afterwards a fierce fight began. The Zouaves of Col. Wilson are credited with having fought with great bravery, and the rebels admit a loss of about 40 killed and 80 wounded. The rebels claim to have spiked the guns of the Zouaves, and destroyed all their camp equipage. They also claim to have committed great slaughter among the Zouaves, but give no number of the killed. The rebels also say that they carried off a number of prisoners.

PACIFIC SPRINGS, Oct. 12.

The pony express, with California dates to the 8th inst., passed here this morning.

Business in San Francisco is daily improving.

Sumner has issued his proclamation, ordering the manning of the United States military forts of the department by volunteers, and concentrating the regular forces at convenient points for their embarkation for Panama. The horses and equipments of the regulars, at the Dalles, will be turned over to the Oregon volunteer cavalry.

The Los Angelos Star, of the 28th ult., announces the arrival of several families of emigrants from Texas. These are but the advanced portion of some 108 emigrant wagons from the same state. It is stated that Western Texas will be almost depopulated during the present year.

All quiet along the Missouri river this side of Jefferson City.

The Democrat's Jefferson City dispatch, to-night, reports Secretary Cameron and Gen. Thomas as having spent the day with Fremont, at Tipton, and on the way back to St. Louis.

A deserter from Gen. Price has arrived at Jefferson City. He met Price on Wednesday last near Johnstown, Blair county. The rebel army was disaffected, and desertions numerous. This informant thinks if assurances of a fair reception could be conveyed to the rebels, a large proportion would lay down their arms and return to their homes. Their officers tell them repeatedly that they will be hung if caught by the Unionists, and circulate outrageous lies of federal atrocities. Eight or ten other deserters are with this one. Price was believed to intend taking winter quarters in Arkansas. Five hundred sick rebels are reported in Lexington.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.

The Herald's special Washington dispach says reports from Banks' and Stone's column state that the rebels do not appear to be making any demonstrations on the Virginia side of the river.

It is reported that one of our men was killed this morning, in a party from General Smith's command, near Fairfax Court House. One of the rebels was seen to fall from his horse, and several others were picked up and carried away bearing marks of our sharpshooters.

Intelligence from our Mexican minister is to the effect that the Mexican government has asked for a loan from our government of from five to ten millions. Mr. Corwin regards it highly important just at this time that Mexico should have the money to pay interest on her English debt, and thus release her from her present embarrassment.

The Herald's despatch says our government is determined to stand by Mexico at all hazards and protect her against encroachments by foreign powers. Our government has addressed a communication to England, France and Spain, to know what their intentions are, to which no response has been yet received.

Copies of letters from various Indian chiefs to the government agent have been received, all of which breathe loyal sentiments and a determination to stand by the government. Efforts are being made to hold a conference on the Osage river, with all the chiefs, in regard to their future policy. Rebel agents are very busy among them, but it is stated all the Indians who are in the field against us, have been coerced.

Capt. M. Bryant of the 3d Michigan volunteers, who was arraigned and tried by a general court martial, upon the charge of violating the 42d article of war, in leaving his camp without the consent of commanding officer, and remaining out all night, was found not guilty.

Tribune's despatch.—The following Ohio troops have been sent to Central Kentucky during the last ten days: Now at Camp Dick Robinson, 14th, Col. Stedman; 17th, Col. Covrell; 31st, Col. Walker. At Nicholasville, 38th, Col. Bradley; 21st, Colonel Norton. At Cynthiana, 19th regiment, Col. Van Derneret. At Olympian spring, 2d regiment, Col. Harris. The 15th regiment, Col. Dickie, and the 18th, Col. Gibson, are with Gen. Anderson. One battery of artillery, Col. Barnett. 1st regiment Ohio volunteers, left Cincinnati October 9th, for Camp Dick Robinson, and a solid battery left on the 10th. The 37th regiment, Col. Liber, left on the 9th for Western Virginia. On Friday the 41th regiment, Col. Smith, had orders to leave their camp at Springfield, Ohio, for Western Virginia.

The mother of Jackson, who murdered Ellsworth, was arrested Sunday for keeping a rendezvous for rebel spies, near Prospect Hill.

The government is about erecting permanent barracks in Washington for sixty thousand troops.

The troops in Western Virginia are to be paid off soon.

It is reported that Gen. Mitchell will be put in command of an expedition to drive the rebels out of Cumberland Gap, thence to carry the war into Tennessee. Zollicoffer has withdrawn all his troops to and beyond Cumberland Gap.

The Times dispatch says the rebels in considerable force showed themselves on Saturday before Gen. Hancock's headquarters, with a large Parrott gun, flanked on each side by brass howitzers, but retired without firing. This morning they appeared in some force on Prospect Hill, near Great Falls, but after a short stay retired.

The Herald states that Wm. Byrd, late clerk in the auditor's office, and a man named Martin, lately factotum of Jake Thompson, have been arrested and imprisoned in Richmond as spies. Both are traitors.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 11.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 14.

Sec'y Cameron and Adjt. Gen. Thomas arrived last night. The secretary reviewed the 8th Wisconsin regiment, Col. Murphy, which had just arrived by steamboat, before Barnum's Hotel, this forenoon.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 13.

Twelve of the 11th regiment of New York Zouaves were, yesterday, taken by the rebels a short distance above Newport News. Lieut. Zeelen, who commanded the party, who were in quest of fuel, is under arrest for cowardly behavior.

BUFFALO, Oct. 14.

Friday night the schooner Sasco, from Chicago, struck on the bar at the mouth of the creek, and was carried on the breakwater, where she lies full of water. Her cargo, consisting of 18,000 bushels of wheat, is ruined.

Receipts of wheat 229,962 bu.; market slightly favors buyers with moderate export demand; sales 80,000 bu. 1,15½ Chicago spring, 1,18a1,20 Milwaukee club, 1,21 amber Iowa, 1,28a1,31 winter red western, 1,43 white Kentucky.

THE APPROACHES TO NEW ORLEANS.—The Philadelphia Press says:

The river at the Balize divides into four branches, discharging themselves respectively through Pass l'Outre, Northeast Pass, South Pass, and Southwest Pass. Above, where these four outlets begin, there are two forts, almost opposite to each other, named Jackson and St. Philip. When this rebellion broke out they were not efficiently mounted, and could easily have been taken. What additions the traitor Twiggs has made to their defense is not known. If they are well mounted it would be very difficult for a fleet to pass up the main body of the river.

There are, however, three other modes of approach by water to the city. The one is through lakes Borgne and Pontchartrain, another up the Atchafalaya to Berwick Bay and thence by bayous Torel and Plaquemine to Iberville, one hundred miles above New Orleans, and a third by way of Grand Pass and bayous Lafourche to Donaldsonville, eighty miles above the city. By the first named route, vessels of from fifteen to eighteen feet draught can be brought to the Lake House, located five miles from the city. The troops landed there can be taken up the canal by water, or can march at once up the shell road, the prettiest road in America. Along it any amount of troops could be marched. On either side of it or the canal, which run parallel, the ground falls away into a swamp covered with dense undergrowth, affording magnificent covers for skirmishers or riflemen. These, however, could be easily brushed. There is not a spot along the whole five miles of road upon which there is any kind of fortification save barricades.

It is along this route that a heavy trade is carried on between Mobile and the Crescent City; the length of these two lakes, including the Rigolette, is about 110 miles. At the entrance of Borgne, the easternmost of the two, lie three islands known as Cat, Ship and Horse islands. Upon the main, right opposite to them, is Mississippi City, the post said to have been lately seized and fortified by our troops. Recent advices indicate that earthworks are being thrown up on Cat and Ship islands. These, with batteries constructed upon the northeastern tongue of the parish of St. Bernard, would effectually cut off all commerce between these two cities, and prevent the entrance and capture of any vessel coming from or going to sea. At least a single armed vessel, in addition, would effectually close the wide strait where Borgne debouches into the Gulf.

The Atchafalaya affords, at the barrel stakes, only 12 feet water, but above that any depth needed, thirty or forty miles.—Through it, and the Plaquemine, vessels of that draught can pass to Iberville, into the Mississippi, at any time from the 1st of December to the 1st of June, when the river is full.

Vessels of ten feet draught can go up the Bayou Lafourche during the same season of the year.

Moreover, the western extremity of Borgne comes within twelve miles of the city itself, and from thence means could be found to march troops and munitions of war, not withstanding the swampy character of the country for the greater part of the route.

New Orleans can easily be taken, for the confederates have not the means of defending all these flank approaches, as well as the approach by the main river.

Doubtless other modes of access, as easy and practicable as those pointed out, can be found, should it become necessary.

PRICE.—Further intelligence from western Missouri fails to dispel the existing uncertainty respecting Price's designs. He is now reported to be about one hundred miles south of Fremont's, which has advanced beyond Tipton, and is in swift pursuit.

The report that Price and McCulloch had joined forces, is contradicted by the statement that such a junction is expected by the rebels to take place at Sac river. This could not occur till about the 20th inst., before which time Fremont will probably compel a battle.

The public patience may be additionally taxed by the fact that the telegraphists are forbidden to tell us of Fremont's movements. This, however, cannot add materially to the principal delay of intelligence experienced in getting from the army across the long reach of country beyond the telegraph lines.—St. Louis Democrat, 12th.

CONNECTICUT TOBACCO.—This has been an excellent season for tobacco—a crop amounting to over half a million of dollars annually in Hartford county alone. It has ripened well the present year, the rich yellowing tinge, showing its complete fitness for the knife, appearing upon the fields as early as the 10th inst. The crop is already gathered in most admirable condition, and the leaf, free from injury by the hail and fierce winds, presents an evenness and perfection not often witnessed. This year's crop will be a favorite one with the manufacturers, on account of its perfection in every respect.—Hartford Courant.

WHO OWNED THE CATALINE.—The steamer Cataline was chartered by the government at a good round figure, with the agreement if she was lost in the government service, a good round price would be allowed for her. Singular coincidence; she was very soon destroyed by fire, and the government of course called on for the good round sum in question. Suspicions of foul play were then entertained, and the government set about inquiries. The first inquiry was, as to who were the owners, on which point the Washington special of the Times throws the following light:

"If I am not much mistaken, the records of the congressional committee have made that matter clear. The owner of the Cataline was Hon. O. B. Matteson, of Utica, who purchased her for eight thousand dollars. Shortly afterwards he sold her to a company of four persons, viz:—Thurlow Weed, John E. Develin, O. B. Matteson and Gilbert C. Davidson.

These gentlemen paid Mr. Matteson eighteen thousand dollars for the boat, the sum of the purchase money being divided into four notes, each for four thousand five hundred dollars. Each of the four gentlemen named became the indorser of three notes and the maker of one. Shortly after this purchase was made, the boat was chartered to the government. By this speculation Matteson appears to have made five thousand five hundred dollars clear, besides retaining one fourth interest in the lucrative charter which he and his confreres were enabled to obtain.

A BRIGHT EXAMPLE FOR OUR YOUNG MEN.—The young Gov. Sprague, of Rhode Island, a millionaire, not satisfied with his liberal contributions of money to the cause of the Union in this war, was among the first to offer his individual services in the field, and was among the bravest of the brave on the bloody hills of Manassas.—Lately, in explaining his non-attendance at an Agricultural fair in Vermont, he writes: "Permit me to say, and especially to the young men of Vermont—that class whom I am trying to represent in my own person—that the glorious privilege of doing some real service to one's country now exists," and that "a life time may never present another such occasion."

Col. DeVilliers—now brigadier general under Gen. Rosencrans—has arrived in Milwaukee.

The Southwestern Campaign.

The recent action of the Cherokee Indians, in joining the rebels will doubtless call the serious attention of the government to our southwestern frontier. These Indians were the most loyal, as well as the most civilized of any of the tribes, removed from the south. Since they, or a majority of them, have united their fortunes with the rebel cause, we have no friendly tribe, in that region to rely upon. The whole territory is to be reconquered. No delay should be permitted in asserting the authority of the government over these tribes, and especially the Cherokees. They number about twenty-five thousand, and their territory forms the southern boundary of Kansas. It is not surprising, therefore, that the people of the latter state are calling loudly upon the general government for protection, as they are threatened upon two sides of their territory—on the south by the Indians and on the east by the Missourians. It is probable, also, that the wild tribes of the plains, west of Kansas, are more or less tinctured with the insanity of this rebellion. The fate of Kansas, after all the sacrifices of her people, may, therefore, be still considered in doubt, unless speedy help be sent to them.

The most effectual means of ridding both Kansas and Missouri of the secessionists is to send a well appointed army into Arkansas and the Indian territory. Without aid from the south, it is evident that the Missouri rebels must speedily subside—without a secession force in Missouri no harm can be done to the people of Kansas. The only route from the south to Missouri now practicable to the rebels, is through western Arkansas and the Indian territory.

It would, therefore, be good policy to strengthen Fremont's army with more mounted rangers, and let them proceed immediately to the Indian territory and take possession of it. On their way they could establish a fort in southwestern Missouri, and leave men and a plenty of artillery for its defence. This would prevent a further irruption of rebels in that direction from Arkansas.

The army then might advance to Fort Smith, on the Arkansas river, which is not more than seventy-five miles from the southern boundary of Missouri. This is also on the eastern boundary of the Indian territory, and once in our possession, we could command the latter territory and western Arkansas. There are fifty thousand half civilized Indians in the territory west of Arkansas, many of whom hold slaves, and it is through the latter interest that they have been lured into rebellion. They should be taught a lesson in this respect that will be remembered in all time.

The occupation of Fort Smith, with a powerful army, and its thorough protection by heavy artillery, once accomplished, it would be a point of offensive operations against the rebels of Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico. We should also be in a situation to chastise the wild tribes of Camanches and Kiowas, who roam the plains westward, and who are beginning to feel that they have no masters. The rebels of New Mexico and Arizona might also be attended from this point.

Looking, therefore, to the future control of our southwestern empire by the general government, as well as the present protection of the loyal people of the southwest, it is evident that the army which is now in pursuit of Price can be used for a far greater and more important object. It ought never to return until the starry banner waves on a line of forts from Missouri to Galveston.

Whether the general government has sufficient thought for the west to provide such an expedition with the necessary outfit, or whether the presidential candidates in the cabinet will permit Fremont to lead it, remains to be seen.

The Eighth Regiment in Chicago.

The Eighth Wisconsin regiment, which for some two months has been in temporary quarters at Camp Randall, Madison, Wisconsin, left their camp at 8 o'clock on Saturday morning, and, after a brief parade through the streets of the capitol city, took the cars of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway for Chicago, en route for St. Louis. The arrival here had been heralded by the daily papers, and the streets of our city were crowded with people awaiting the advent of what had been announced as the crack regiment of Wisconsin. The crowd at the depot was immense, and the people composing it were not to be disappointed in beholding an imposing display.

The Eighth Wisconsin is as fine, if not a finer, body of men than the First, whose advent here all will recollect. The men are heavy, well-built, and inured to the labors of the farm, the shop, and the lumbering country. It is armed with muskets of the best pattern, and uniformed and equipped in the same perfect style which has characterized the bodies previously passing through this place for the east, the Eighth being the first regiment our sister state has furnished for Missouri. Their discipline is good, and the manner in which the manœuvres were performed while marching through the streets last evening would have been creditable to veteran troops. They have received pay for the services already rendered, and left in good condition mentally and physically, there being but six or eight on the sick list. It took $12,000 to square their account with the government.—Times.

The Tribune says:—

The regiment numbers one thousand and fifty men, and, as a whole, is, we think, as fine looking, well officered, and well drilled, as any regiment which has passed through our city. The men are well built, muscular fellows, and apparently in fine spirits at the prospects of a brush with the rebels. A noticeable feature among them was the Chippewa Eagles, Captain Perkins, a company of first class, stalwart fellows; and the live American Eagle, which they brought with them, was an object of much curiosity. He is a majestic bird, well trained and docile, permitting people to pat his regal head and smooth down his feathers without resistance.

When marching, the eagle is carried at the head of the company, elevated on a perch at the top of a pole. The eagle was caught on the head waters of the Chippewa river, by the Chippewa Indians. Captain Perkins' company take it with them to the war. The men were offered a large sum for it in Madison, but they will not part with it. They swear it shall never be taken by the enemy. No doubt the Chippewa Eagles and their pet will be heard of again.

The Tribune is mistaken when it says that at Janesville "the regiment was supplied with coffee and eatables by the Northwestern road." They were supplied by the people of Janesville and vicinity.

GOING BACK BEFORE THE FLOOD.—The Albany Atlas and Argus, in its extracts from the speeches of Daniel S. Dickinson of a year ago. The regency clique are reproducing these extracts now to damage Mr. Dickinson before the people. What donkeys these regency tricksters are, and what fools they must imagine the people to be, in undertaking to humbug them by applying the political issues of a reign of peace to the contingencies of an armed rebellion, menacing the very capital of our country! A few weeks more, however, and there will be an end of this miserable rump of the Albany regency. It goes out like a tallow candle, flickering and sputtering, and with an unpleasant stench; but a little water will quench it.—New York Herald.

☞ It is reported that 50,000 troops are to be sent from the east to the west. We hope they will give us back our western men. They have experience in frontier life, and would be far more efficient than soldiers from the cities of New York and Philadelphia.

TAKING THE VEIL.—Three young ladies of Green Bay were initiated on Sunday last into the monastic order of St. Dominick.—The ceremonies are described as being very solemn.

Last Night's Report.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.

W. J. Packard was arrested here to-day on an order from the state department, as being an alleged emissary from Richmond, where he was connected with Sloat & Co. Packard has represented himself in Cincinnati as a refugee from the south, and lately visited Washington, it is said, on the pretence of giving valuable information to the federal authorities, and had while there ample opportunity to discover the position and strength of our forces. He was sent to Fort Lafayette this evening.

The schooners Ocean Wave, Harriet Ryan and Mecca have been brought as prizes from Hatteras Inlet to the navy yard.

THE OYSTER TRADE.—The Baltimore Sun says:

"The oyster business of Baltimore exhibits a visible diminition in the number of vessels employed in bringing the bivalves to this port the present season, owing to the blockade of the Virginia waters, from whence the best kinds are obtained, and the strict surveillance exercised over all vessels navigating Maryland waters. As a consequence a rise in prices may be expected soon. Last year about three hundred thousand bushels were brought to this city, thereby creating a trade valued at two million dollars. Over four hundred schooners and pungys were engaged in the business of their transportation upon the Chesapeake and its tributaries. Undoubtedly there is a falling off this season, but the trade has for a number of years past annually yielded employment to between four thousand and five thousand men, in the various capacities of boatmen, carters, shockers, tinners, packers, carpenters, laborers, &c.

For the past ten years the exportation of oysters to such important points in the west as Pittsburg, Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati, has been almost exclusively monopolized by Baltimore. The oysters for transportation to these points are generally shocked, put in gallon cans, and hermetically sealed; after which they are closely packed together in boxes holding a dozen cans, which is filled with sawdust, and, during the mild season, with ice, to keep them perfectly fresh and pure. During the winter season they are transported in the shell, being sent in barrels.

The oyster business exists only eight months in the year, the law prohibiting the traffic from May to September. Notwithstanding all the drawbacks of the times, the prospect of the oyster business is fair, and no great scarcity need be apprehended."

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.

The refugees from Norfolk, which arrived to-day on the steamer Louisiana, previous to leaving had been closely searched to prevent their bringing any newspapers, but one passenger secured a Norfolk Day Book, which had the dispatches from New Orleans of the attack on Wilson's Zouaves at Santa Rosa Island. The rebels, a thousand in number, stormed the works in the night, and in an hour had spiked all the guns which were in position, destroyed all the tents but the hospital, and captured ammunition, rations and stores.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 12.

The Evening News learns upon unquestionable authority that Messrs. Breckinridge, Preston, Johnston, Deshony, Williams, Haws, Moore, and other secession notables, are organizing a large rebel camp at Prestonburg, Floyd county. It says they have a force of six or seven thousand men, whom they are drilling eight hours per day, and that they are alarming the mountaineers by circulating incredible stories as to the intention of the government. The News asks the government to place promptly the requisite force in the mountains, around which the Union men may rally.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.

The Norfolk Day Book, received this morning, contains dispatches received from New Orleans, giving an account of a surprise and an attack made on Col. Billy Wilson's Zouaves, on Santa Rosa Island, on the 8th inst. By this account it appears that detachments from several Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama regiments made a landing in the night, and drove in Wilson's pickets. Shortly afterwards a fierce fight began. The Zouaves of Col. Wilson are credited with having fought with great bravery, and the rebels admit a loss of about 40 killed and 80 wounded. The rebels claim to have spiked the guns of the Zouaves, and destroyed all their camp equipage. They also claim to have committed great slaughter among the Zouaves, but give no number of the killed. The rebels also say that they carried off a number of prisoners.

All quiet along the Missouri river this side of Jefferson City.

The Democrat's Jefferson City dispatch, to-night, reports Secretary Cameron and Gen. Thomas as having spent the day with Fremont, at Tipton, and on the way back to St. Louis.

A deserter from Gen. Price has arrived at Jefferson City. He met Price on Wednesday last near Johnstown, Blair county. The rebel army was disaffected, and desertions numerous. This informant thinks if assurances of a fair reception could be conveyed to the rebels, a large proportion would lay down their arms and return to their homes. Their officers tell them repeatedly that they will be hung if caught by the Unionists, and circulate outrageous lies of federal atrocities. Eight or ten other deserters are with this one. Price was believed to intend taking winter quarters in Arkansas. Five hundred sick rebels are reported in Lexington.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.

The Herald's special Washington dispach says reports from Banks' and Stone's column state that the rebels do not appear to be making any demonstrations on the Virginia side of the river.

It is reported that one of our men was killed this morning, in a party from General Smith's command, near Fairfax Court House. One of the rebels was seen to fall from his horse, and several others were picked up and carried away bearing marks of our sharpshooters.

Intelligence from our Mexican minister is to the effect that the Mexican government has asked for a loan from our government of from five to ten millions. Mr. Corwin regards it highly important just at this time that Mexico should have the money to pay interest on her English debt, and thus release her from her present embarrassment.

The Herald's despatch says our government is determined to stand by Mexico at all hazards and protect her against encroachments by foreign powers. Our government has addressed a communication to England, France and Spain, to know what their intentions are, to which no response has been yet received.

Copies of letters from various Indian chiefs to the government agent have been received, all of which breathe loyal sentiments and a determination to stand by the government. Efforts are being made to hold a conference on the Osage river, with all the chiefs, in regard to their future policy. Rebel agents are very busy among them, but it is stated all the Indians who are in the field against us, have been coerced.

Capt. M. Bryant of the 3d Michigan volunteers, who was arraigned and tried by a general court martial, upon the charge of violating the 42d article of war, in leaving his camp without the consent of commanding officer, and remaining out all night, was found not guilty.

Hancock's headquarters, with a large Parrott gun, flanked on each side by brass howitzers, but retired without firing. This morning they appeared in some force on Prospect Hill, near Great Falls, but after a short stay retired.

The Herald states that Wm. Byrd, late clerk in the auditor's office, and a man named Martin, lately factotum of Jake Thompson, have been arrested and imprisoned in Richmond as spies. Both are traitors.

THE APPROACHES TO NEW ORLEANS.—The Philadelphia Press says:

The river at the Balize divides into four branches, discharging themselves respectively through Pass l'Outre, Northeast Pass, South Pass, and Southwest Pass. Above, where these four outlets begin, there are two forts, almost opposite to each other, named Jackson and St. Philip. When this rebellion broke out they were not efficiently mounted, and could easily have been taken. What additions the traitor Twiggs has made to their defense is not known. If they are well mounted it would be very difficult for a fleet to pass up the main body of the river.

There are, however, three other modes of approach by water to the city. The one is through lakes Borgne and Pontchartrain, another up the Atchafalaya to Berwick Bay and thence by bayous Torel and Plaquemine to Iberville, one hundred miles above New Orleans, and a third by way of Grand Pass and bayous Lafourche to Donaldsonville, eighty miles above the city. By the first named route, vessels of from fifteen to eighteen feet draught can be brought to the Lake House, located five miles from the city. The troops landed there can be taken up the canal by water, or can march at once up the shell road, the prettiest road in America. Along it any amount of troops could be marched. On either side of it or the canal, which run parallel, the ground falls away into a swamp covered with dense undergrowth, affording magnificent covers for skirmishers or riflemen. These, however, could be easily brushed. There is not a spot along the whole five miles of road upon which there is any kind of fortification save barricades.

It is along this route that a heavy trade is carried on between Mobile and the Crescent City; the length of these two lakes, including the Rigolette, is about 110 miles. At the entrance of Borgne, the easternmost of the two, lie three islands known as Cat, Ship and Horse islands. Upon the main, right opposite to them, is Mississippi City, the post said to have been lately seized and fortified by our troops. Recent advices indicate that earthworks are being thrown up on Cat and Ship islands. These, with batteries constructed upon the northeastern tongue of the parish of St. Bernard, would effectually cut off all commerce between these two cities, and prevent the entrance and capture of any vessel coming from or going to sea. At least a single armed vessel, in addition, would effectually close the wide strait where Borgne debouches into the Gulf.

The Atchafalaya affords, at the barrel stakes, only 12 feet water, but above that any depth needed, thirty or forty miles.—Through it, and the Plaquemine, vessels of that draught can pass to Iberville, into the Mississippi, at any time from the 1st of December to the 1st of June, when the river is full.

Vessels of ten feet draught can go up the Bayou Lafourche during the same season of the year.

Moreover, the western extremity of Borgne comes within twelve miles of the city itself, and from thence means could be found to march troops and munitions of war, not withstanding the swampy character of the country for the greater part of the route.

New Orleans can easily be taken, for the confederates have not the means of defending all these flank approaches, as well as the approach by the main river.

Doubtless other modes of access, as easy and practicable as those pointed out, can be found, should it become necessary.

PRICE.—Further intelligence from western Missouri fails to dispel the existing uncertainty respecting Price's designs. He is now reported to be about one hundred miles south of Fremont's, which has advanced beyond Tipton, and is in swift pursuit.

The report that Price and McCulloch had joined forces, is contradicted by the statement that such a junction is expected by the rebels to take place at Sac river. This could not occur till about the 20th inst., before which time Fremont will probably compel a battle.

The public patience may be additionally taxed by the fact that the telegraphists are forbidden to tell us of Fremont's movements. This, however, cannot add materially to the principal delay of intelligence experienced in getting from the army across the long reach of country beyond the telegraph lines.—St. Louis Democrat, 12th.

CONNECTICUT TOBACCO.—This has been an excellent season for tobacco—a crop amounting to over half a million of dollars annually in Hartford county alone. It has ripened well the present year, the rich yellowing tinge, showing its complete fitness for the knife, appearing upon the fields as early as the 10th inst. The crop is already gathered in most admirable condition, and the leaf, free from injury by the hail and fierce winds, presents an evenness and perfection not often witnessed. This year's crop will be a favorite one with the manufacturers, on account of its perfection in every respect.—Hartford Courant.

WHO OWNED THE CATALINE.—The steamer Cataline was chartered by the government at a good round figure, with the agreement if she was lost in the government service, a good round price would be allowed for her. Singular coincidence; she was very soon destroyed by fire, and the government of course called on for the good round sum in question. Suspicions of foul play were then entertained, and the government set about inquiries. The first inquiry was, as to who were the owners, on which point the Washington special of the Times throws the following light:

"If I am not much mistaken, the records of the congressional committee have made that matter clear. The owner of the Cataline was Hon. O. B. Matteson, of Utica, who purchased her for eight thousand dollars. Shortly afterwards he sold her to a company of four persons, viz:—Thurlow Weed, John E. Develin, O. B. Matteson and Gilbert C. Davidson.

These gentlemen paid Mr. Matteson eighteen thousand dollars for the boat, the sum of the purchase money being divided into four notes, each for four thousand five hundred dollars. Each of the four gentlemen named became the indorser of three notes and the maker of one. Shortly after this purchase was made, the boat was chartered to the government. By this speculation Matteson appears to have made five thousand five hundred dollars clear, besides retaining one-fourth interest in the lucrative charter which he and his confreres were enabled to obtain.

A BRIGHT EXAMPLE FOR OUR YOUNG MEN.—The young Gov. Sprague, of Rhode Island, a millionaire, not satisfied with his liberal contributions of money to the cause of the Union in this war, was among the first to offer his individual services in the field, and was among the bravest of the brave on the bloody hills of Manassas.—Lately, in explaining his non-attendance at an Agricultural fair in Vermont, he writes: "Permit me to say, and especially to the young men of Vermont—that class whom I am trying to represent in my own person—that the glorious privilege of doing some real service to one's country now exists," and that "a life time may never present another such occasion."

Col. DeVilliers—now brigadier general under Gen. Rosencrans—has arrived in Milwaukee.

MINNESOTA TROOPS.—The 2d Minnesota regiment will pass through Janesville tomorrow forenoon, on its way to the seat of war.

County Superintendent of Schools.

UNION, Wis., Oct. 12, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Please present the name of Prof. Edward Searing, of Union, to your readers for the office of county superintendent of common schools, and oblige MANY VOTERS.

READING FOR THE SOLDIERS.—We would suggest to our citizns generally that they can do a good act by depositing old papers and magazines at the post office, for Camp Tredway. Anything, almost, that you have read and are done with, will be thankfully received by the soldiers in camp there.—The evenings now are long even to us who have something to do to engage our attention; and how much longer are they to those who are shut out from all opportunity of relieving the monotony of camp life? Send them something to read every day. When you go or send to the post office, send some reading matter of some kind for the volunteers. It will be no sacrifice on your part, and will be a kindness to them they will appreciate.

SERMON AT THE CAMP.—Rev. Mr. Kinney preached to the soldiers at Camp Tredway yesterday afternoon. It was a very pleasant day, and in addition to the military, there were a large number of citizens present. The sermon was on the duties and responsibilities of the war, and was an eloquent and powerful effort.

FROST.—The first frost sufficient to kill tomato and squash vines, was experienced in this vicinity on Saturday night last.—With frosty nights we may look for Indian Summer and pleasant weather.

CAMP TREDWAY, Oct. 14, 1861.

Every member of the "Ruger Guards" will report himself at headquarters of the company, at Camp Tredway, on or before one o'clock P. M., Oct 15th.

Per order EDWARD RUGER, Captain.

☞ Any able bodied man wishing to join the "Ruger Gaurds" can do so by making application soon.

EDWARD RUGER, Captain.

THE FOOD REQUIREMENTS OF EUROPE.—It is abundantly evident that Europe will be compelled to take from the United States during the coming nine months, all the grain and food that can be conveyed to the seaboard and shipped in sea-going vessels, and to pay for the same in gold. Opinions vary as to the exact amount of breadstuffs which will be required for the consumption of the people of England and France over and above what has been yielded by the harvest of those countries. One estimate is 175,000,000 bushels of grain, another 150,000,000. Messrs Hallett, in their circular, estimate that France will require 80,000,000, and England 64,000,000, total of 144,000,000 bushels, or 3,000,0000 per week for forty-eight weeks. It is questionable whether all the railroads and lake and river shipping in this country, and all the vessels employed in the trade between the United States and maritime Europe, suffice to transport such an enormous quantity of produce. It is evident that, with such a movement eastward, the exchanges may be regarded as permanently fixed in our favor, for a year to come, and the steady flow of specie from Europe to the United States certain and reliable.—N. Y. Herald.

THE COTTON-WANT CRISIS IN ENGLAND.—"Coming events" are "casting their shadow before them" in Boltoc, and that, too, in a somewhat dark and extensive form. Short time is not actually adopted as to a set number of working hours, but production is very materially lessened in most cotton spinning and cloth manufacturing concerns; power loom weavers waiting a week at once for warps, and one very large cotton spinning concern, that of Messrs. Dolling & Slade, is closing altogether. The first have six mills. In these they have seven steam engines of two hundred and thirty horse-power, and had in their employment, at midsummer, 531 females and 256 males—total 787. In parting with the work-people, they are told to seek employment immediately, anywhere, as there is no probability of the mills resuming work under the existing interest. We regret to state that Messrs. Jackson, of Queen street mill, Lancaster, commenced running three days per week this week, and will not start their engines till Thursday.—Preston Guardian, Sept. 20th.

A STRANGE COINCIDENCE.—FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 5.—Lexington was still full, yesterday morning, of stories about the 14th Ohio, which recently passed through that city. A very singular coincidence occurred there during the stay of the 14th, which, more sadly than anything else I have heard, illustrates the degeneracy of some of Kentuck's noblest names. Anxious to pay all possible respect to the memory of the 'Great Commoner,' whose fame Ohio yet guards as jealously as his own Kentucky, Col. Steedman marched his regiment out to the tomb of Henry Clay. They formed silently around the grave, and, at the very moment these loyal troops from another state, on their way to defend Kentucky from invasion, reverently presented arms at the tomb of Kentucky's greatest statesman, the degenerate son, James B. Clay, was brought into the railroad depot, a prisoner in the hands of other loyal troops, arrested on the charge of treason!—Cor. Cincinnati Gazette.

A NEW CLASS OF REFUGEES IN CANADA.—The Montreal Herald notices the settlement in that city of some wealthy citizens from the United States. One gentleman from Florida is there, who fled because of his northern sympathies; another, recently a banker in New York, doing business mainly with the south, who takes himself, his son and $250,000 to Montreal, in fear of lodging in Fort Lafayette; a third, who has made a very large deposit in one of the city banks, and seeks to obtain naturalization as a British subject and to invest his capital in ships; and a fourth, whose brother is in the rebel army, and who settles down with his family and fortune in Canada, to be out of harm's way.

DARNESTOWN.—This village has of late occupied a conspicuous place in notices of the campaign on the Upper Potomac. A correspondent of the New York World thus describes it:

Darnestown is a representative of the thriftless little villages scattered through the rural districts of Maryland and Virginia.—A few decaying, paintless houses; an old tavern; two cheap groceries; a dozen tumble down fences: these, with pigs, negroes and chickens, constitute the make up of the place. There may be a church and school house, but I havn't seen them yet. I had nearly forgotten the natives, who are as stolid and shiftless as the same race of other chivalrous localities. Few of them know the height of "Sugarloaf," the distance to Great Falls, or other local facts which Yankee boys of ten would naturally learn and remember. Such people seem to have neither sense, sentiment, nor faith; only a kind of blind affiliation with the south, and hopeless devotion to the decaying system which is their heritage and curse.

A NOVEL MODE OF FELLING TREES.—A correspondent writing from an encampment near Mount Vernon, says:

I wish you could see these Maine boys cut trees; they have a method by which they can bring down two or three at a time. They will take a lot of trees standing in a line, and first cut the one in the rear, until it bends sufficient to rest upon the one immediately in front, and so on until they will sometimes have half a dozen readly to fell at once, just as the children make what they call a "shake" with bricks. With aid of the pressure of one or two others, and a few blows more from their axe, down they all come, five or six in number, in about the same time it would take you or myself to get one to bend. What a change it makes in the appearance of the country. Go out in the morning, and you may see a beautiful valley covered with trees. Come to the same locality again at evening, and you will be astonished to see what a havoc the woodman's axe has made during the day.

TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION.—We heard yesterday of an an act which for heartless and cold-blooded atrocity stands almost without a parallel. A worthy citizen, of advanced years and unblemished reputation, an old resident of this community, lay on his death bed. In the awful hour, when his weeping wife and children stood around him, and the damps of mortality were settling rapidly around his brow, the deep stillness which prevailed was suddenly and rudely interrupted. An inhuman creditor of the dying man forced his way into the chamber and to the bedside, and, utterly unmindful of the awfully impressive scene before him, laid upon the bosom of the dying and unconscious debtor a legal summons to answer for a small indebtedness. Within an hour the debter was a corpse. This incident, which is told to us on undoubted authority, exceeds in heartless atrocity the wildest creations of fiction itself.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says a soldier who was attempting to escape from a squad that was endeavoring to arrest him, leaped from the suspension bridge into the Ohio, a distance of seventy feet. He struck the water feet foremost, went down, but soon came to the surface and struggled for life. A boat put out and rescued him after he had gone down the second time. Whisky caused his troubles.

SHARP PRACTICE BY MRS. GREENHOW.—A part of the gossip of sympathetic female secessiondom at Washington, is the miscarriage of the financial endeavor of Mrs. Greenhow to have her washing done at the expense of the government, and her grocer's bill for candles liquidated at the war department. Imprisoned in her own house, she took a southern view of the obligation of her jailor to pay her domestic expenses. Her laundry bill and an account for candles were actually presented to Mr. Cameron for allowance.

SWEARING REBELS.—Prentice says: "It seems absurd to swear a bitter secessionist not to be guilty of disloyalty. You might as well swear a mad dog not to bite."

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT PORT WASHINGTON.—On the 8th inst., a wagon belonging to N. Mammer, at Ozaukee, capsized in descending a hill. Three small children of Mr. Mammer's were thrown to the ground, and seriously, it is feared fatally, injured.

COAL IN PIERCE COUNTY.—The editor of the Prescott Journal, published in Pierce county, has had left with him a lump of coal exhumed in that vicinity. The same paper announces an oil spring near Prescott.

The governor of Illinois has arranged with the government for $1,000,000 in money, 6,000 muskets, 5,000 rifles, and 14 batteries of rifled cannon, for the armament of Illinois.

AN ORDINANCE

Establishing the grade of a portion of Jackson street, and for constructing sidewalks in front of lots on said street, in the first ward of the city of Janesville.

THE Mayor and Common Council of the city of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SEC. 1. The grade of Jackson street in the first ward of said city, from the north line of Bluff street to the east line of Madison street, as surveyed and marked on a plan and profile thereof, made by Edward Ruger, city engineer, and filed in the office of the city clerk, on the 12th day of April, A D 1861, is hereby established.

SEC. 2. A sidewalk is hereby required to be built, 6 feet in width, of 2 by 6 inch pine plank, underlaid with three strips of sleepers, of 2 by 4 inch pine scantling, in front of each lot numbered seventy-six (76), seventy-seven (77), seventy-eight (78), seventy-nine (79), eighty-five (85) and parcel of lot eighty-six (86) lying south of the railroad track, in Smith & Bailey's addition to Janesville. The sidewalk in front of said lots numbered 76 and 77, in Smith & Bailey's addition, to be constructed with upright posts, 4 by 4 inches, of pine, eight feet apart, firmly set into the ground, on the eastern or outer edge of the plank and extending three feet above the walk, with a railing on top of posts, 2 by 4 inches, securely fastened to each post; said posts to be let into the plank and fastened to sills and charred at the bottom to the depth set in the ground.

SEC. 3. The average expense of the said work is hereby authorized and directed to be assessed upon each foot front of the lots and part of a lot mentioned in the preceding section pro-rata equally, so that each of said lots and part of a lot or parcel of land shall be assessed with its proportion of said expense, by multiplying its number of feet front with the average expense per foot.

we propose to sell goods this fall and winter at very

LOW PRICES.

Persons visiting Janesville will give us a call, we will show them through our stock, and we think we will convince them that we mean just what we say.

MINNESOTA TROOPS.—The 2d Minnesota regiment will pass through Janesville tomorrow forenoon, on its way to the seat of war.

County Superintendent of Schools.

UNION, Wis., Oct. 12, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Please present the name of Prof. Edward Searing, of Union, to your readers for the office of county superintendent of common schools, and oblige MANY VOTERS.

READING FOR THE SOLDIERS.—We would suggest to our citizns generally that they can do a good act by depositing old papers and magazines at the post office, for Camp Tredway. Anything, almost, that you have read and are done with, will be thankfully received by the soldiers in camp there.—The evenings now are long even to us who have something to do to engage our attention: and how much longer are they to those who are shut out from all opportunity of relieving the monotony of camp life? Send them something to read every day. When you go or send to the post office, send some reading matter of some kind for the volunteers. It will be no sacrifice on your part, and will be a kindness to them they will appreciate.

SERMON AT THE CAMP.—Rev. Mr. Kinney preached to the soldiers at Camp Tredway yesterday afternoon. It was a very pleasant day, and in addition to the military, there were a large number of citizens present. The sermon was on the duties and responsibilities of the war, and was an eloquent and powerful effort.

FROST.—The first frost sufficient to kill tomato and squash vines, was experienced in this vicinity on Saturday night last.—With frosty nights we may look for Indian Summer and pleasant weather.

CAMP TREDWAY, Oct. 14, 1861.

Every member of the "Ruger Guards" will report himself at headquarters of the company, at Camp Tredway, on or before one o'clock P. M., Oct 15th.

Per order EDWARD RUGER, Captain.

☞ Any able bodied man wishing to join the "Ruger Gaurds" can do so by making application soon.

EDWARD RUGER, Captain.

THE FOOD REQUIREMENTS OF EUROPE.—It is abundantly evident that Europe will be compelled to take from the United States during the coming nine months, all the grain and food that can be conveyed to the seaboard and shipped in sea-going vessels, and to pay for the same in gold. Opinions vary as to the exact amount of breadstuffs which will be required for the consumption of the people of England and France over and above what has been yielded by the harvest of those countries. One estimate is 175,000,000 bushels of grain, another 150,000,000. Messrs Hallett, in their circular, estimate that France will require 80,000,000, and England 64,000,000, total of 144,000,000 bushels, or 3,000,0000 per week for forty-eight weeks. It is questionable whether all the railroads and lake and river shipping in this country, and all the vessels employed in the trade between the United States and maritime Europe, suffice to transport such an enormous quantity of produce. It is evident that, with such a movement eastward, the exchanges may be regarded as permanently fixed in our favor, for a year to come, and the steady flow of specie from Europe to the United States certain and reliable.—N. Y. Herald.

THE COTTON-WANT CRISIS IN ENGLAND.—"Coming events" are "casting their shadow before them" in Boltoc, and that, too, in a somewhat dark and extensive form. Short time is not actually adopted as to a set number of working hours, but production is very materially lessened in most cotton spinning and cloth manufacturing concerns; power loom weavers waiting a week at once for warps, and one very large cotton spinning concern, that of Messrs. Dolling & Slade, is closing altogether. The firm have six mills. In these they have seven steam engines of two hundred and thirty horse-power, and had in their employment, at midsummer, 531 females and 256 males—total 787. In parting with the work-people, they are told to seek employment immediately, anywhere, as there is no probability of the mills resuming work under the existing interest. We regret to state that Messrs. Jackson, of Queen street mill, Lancaster, commenced running three days per week this week, and will not start their engines till Thursday.—Preston Guardian, Sept. 26th.

A STRANGE COINCIDENCE.—FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 5.—Lexington was still full, yesterday morning, of stories about the 14th Ohio, which recently passed through that city. A very singular coincidence occurred there during the stay of the 14th, which, more sadly than anything else I have heard, illustrates the degeneracy of some of Kentuck's noblest names. Anxious to pay all possible respect to the memory of the 'Great Commoner,' whose fame Ohio yet guards as jealously as his own Kentucky, Col. Steedman marched his regiment out to the tomb of Henry Clay. They formed silently around the grave, and, at the very moment these loyal troops from another state, on their way to defend Kentucky from invasion, reverently presented arms at the tomb of Kentucky's greatest statesman, the degenerate son, James B. Clay, was brought into the railroad depot, a prisoner in the hands of other loyal troops, arrested on the charge of treason!—Cor. Cincinnati Gazette.

A NEW CLASS OF REFUGEES IN CANADA.—The Montreal Herald notices the settlement in that city of some wealthy citizens from the United States. One gentleman from Florida is there, who fled because of his northern sympathies; another, recently a banker in New York, doing business mainly with the south, who takes himself, his son and $250,000 to Montreal, in fear of lodging in Fort Lafayette; a third, who has made a very large deposit in one of the city banks, and seeks to obtain naturalization as a British subject and to invest his capital in ships; and a fourth, whose brother is in the rebel army, and who settles down with his family and fortune in Canada, to be out of harm's way.

DARNESTOWN.—This village has of late occupied a conspicuous place in notices of the campaign on the Upper Potomac. A correspondent of the New York World thus describes it:

Darnestown is a representative of the thriftless little villages scattered through the rural districts of Maryland and Virginia.—A few decaying, paintless houses; an old tavern; two cheap groceries; a dozen tumble down fences: these, with pigs, negroes and chickens, constitute the make up of the place. There may be a church and school house, but I havn't seen them yet. I had nearly forgotten the natives, who are as stolid and shiftless as the same race of other chivalrous localities. Few of them know the height of "Sugarloaf," the distance to Great Falls, or other local facts which Yankee boys of ten would naturally learn and remember. Such people seem to have neither sense, sentiment, nor faith; only a kind of blind affiliation with the south, and hopeless devotion to the decaying system which is their heritage and curse.

A NOVEL MODE OF FELLING TREES.—A correspondent writing from an encampment near Mount Vernon, says:

I wish you could see these Maine boys cut trees; they have a method by which they can bring down two or three at a time. They will take a lot of trees standing in a line, and first cut the one in the rear, until it bends sufficient to rest upon the one immediately in front, and so on until they will sometimes have half a dozen ready to fell at once, just as the children make what they call a "shake" with bricks. With aid of the pressure of one or two others, and a few blows more from their axe, down they all come, five or six in number, in about the same time it would take you or myself to get one to bend. What a change it makes in the appearance of the country. Go out in the morning, and you may see a beautiful valley covered with trees. Come to the same locality again at evening, and you will be astonished to see what a havoc the woodman's axe has made during the day.

TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION.—We heard yesterday of an an act which for heartless and cold-blooded atrocity stands almost without a parallel. A worthy citizen, of advanced years and unblemished reputation, an old resident of this community, lay on his death-bed. In the awful hour, when his weeping wife and children stood around him, and the damps of mortality were settling rapidly around his brow, the deep stillness which prevailed was suddenly and rudely interrupted. An inhuman creditor of the dying man forced his way into the chamber and to the bedside, and, utterly unmindful of the awfully impressive scene before him, laid upon the bosom of the dying and unconscious debtor a legal summons to answer for a small indebtedness. Within an hour the debter was a corpse. This incident, which is told to us on undoubted authority, exceeds in heartless atrocity the wildest creations of fiction itself.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says a soldier who was attempting to escape from a squad that was endeavoring to arrest him, leaped from the suspension bridge into the Ohio, a distance of seventy feet. He struck the water feet foremost, went down, but soon came to the surface and struggled for life. A boat put out and rescued him after he had gone down the second time. Whisky caused his troubles.

SHARP PRACTICE BY MRS. GREENHOW.—A part of the gossip of sympathetic female secessiondom at Washington, is the miscarringe of the financial endeavor of Mrs. Greenhow to have her washing done at the expense of the government, and her grocer's bill for candles liquidated at the war department. Imprisoned in her own house, she took a southern view of the obligation of her jailor to pay her domestic expenses. Her laundry bill and an account for candles were actually presented to Mr. Cameron for allowance.

SWEARING REBELS.—Prentice says: "It seems absurd to swear a bitter secessionist not to be guilty of disloyalty. You might as well swear a mad dog not to bite."

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT PORT WASHINGTON.—On the 8th inst., a wagon belonging to N. Mammer, at Ozaukee, capsized in descending a hill. Three small children of Mr. Mammer's were thrown to the ground, and seriously, it is feared fatally, injured.

COAL IN PIERCE COUNTY.—The editor of the Prescott Journal, published in Pierce county, has had left with him a lump of coal exhumed in that vicinity. The same paper announces an oil spring near Prescott.

The governor of Illinois has arranged with the government for $1,000,000 in money, 6,000 muskets, 5,000 rifles, and 14 batteries of rifled cannon, for the armament of Illinois.

Establishing the grade of a portion of Jackson street, and for constructing sidewalks in front of lots on said street, in the first ward of the city of Janesville.

THE Mayor and Common Council of the city of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SEC. 1. The grade of Jackson street in the first ward of said city, from the north line of Bluff street to the east line of Madison street, as surveyed and marked on a plan and profile thereof, made by Edward Ruger, city engineer, and filed in the office of the city clerk, on the 12th day of April, A D 1861, is hereby established.

SEC. 2. A sidewalk is hereby required to be built, 6 feet in width, of 2 by 6 inch pine plank, underlaid with three strips of sleepers, of 2 by 4 inch pine scantling, in front of each lot numbered seventy-six (76), seventy-seven (77), seventy-eight (78), seventy-nine (79), eighty-five (85) and parcel of lot eighty-six (86) lying south of the railroad track, in Smith & Bailey's addition to Janesville. Having devoted the entire basement of our store to the sale of these goods, we have just received a large invoice of

in original packages from the manufacturers at a saving of over those who buy in this country. All we have to say in this matter is, that we have much the largest stock in this city, and we shall sell it at least thirty per cent less than the same goods were ever sold for in this place. Any person wanting sets of Crockery will do well to take a look at ours before purchasing.

IN CONCLUSION,

we will say that having bought our entire stock this fall for cash, at low prices, and a great many goods much less than they are worth now, and changed our system to

SELLING ENTIRELY FOR CASH,

we propose to sell goods this fall and winter at very

LOW PRICES.

Persons visiting Janesville will give us a call, we will show them through our stock, and we think we will convince them that we mean just what we say.

THE above are First Class, justly popular and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

CHAPTER 242.

AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER 1 EXTRA SESSION.

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, with the thirteenth (belonging thereto), (or chapter 93 of the general laws of 1858), is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "and stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left on deposit with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to" and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a six per cent. stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposit, by such person or association of persons," and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months and up to the time of deposit in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposit, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months, and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposit, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks; Provided, that it in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act, and provided further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States."

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 10 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to" in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judgment thereof."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st day of December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under a penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also their circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required of them by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum, Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same, and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located, and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths. Provided that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect, otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass."

Chapter 242, approved April 13, 1861; Chapter 1, Extra Session, approved May 25, 1861.

Said election to be conducted, the votes canvassed and returns made in accordance with the provisions of chapter 7 of the Revised Statutes of 1858.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar property has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum, to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st day December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee, or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for nonpayment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum: Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.

DAILY GAZETTE.

THE AWKWARD SQUAD.—That means all of us as we were at first. Having been enlisted only one week, our first experience in drill was a very trying one, but amusing enough—to the initiated. It is a hazardous undertaking for a raw recruit to attempt to order arms; the butt of the piece falls heavily to the ground or on his own or his neighbors toes, just as chance directs it. About-face involves a serious risk of a downfall. Gentlemen with large feet and weak ankles get them tangled, and having a hazy idea of which is which, are unable to untangle them without the aid of the drill-master. After some stupid blunder, the command is gived "As you were!" whereupon some of us take positions we never were in before, and which it would be impossible for us to take in our own volition; and others, lacking confidence in themselves, and afraid of being laughed at, stand, like wooden men, waiting to be moved. But the most terrible experience is in attempting the double-quick. The man behind me uses my heels and the calves of my legs to wipe his feet on; the man beside me keeps time on my ribs with his elbows, and the gun of the short man in front knocks off my cap, narrowly escaping my head. If I stoop for my cap, a dozen or more men will run over me, so I keep on, minus the cap, out of wind, and damaged as to my temper. At this juncture, the man in the rear stumbles, and as he falls, a gleaming sabre bayonet comes down, and I gain a fundamental knowledge of its efficiency as a weapon. It doesn't tear my coat tail, for economical Uncle Sam has not furnished us with that appendage to our raiment; but it makes an unsightly wound in the basement of my trowsers. I am pronounced unfit for duty, and seclude myself from public gaze till I have repaired the fissured garment. But the mysteries of the manual and evolutions become plain in time, and the awkward squad becomes efficient and well-drilled.

A CALIFORNIA SENATOR ON THE WAR.—Senator McDougall, of California, made a patriotic speech at the Union meeting held at Utica, New York, last week. He said: "This is no common battle in which we are engaged. The southern idea is to have slaves to maintain the whites in war and counsel: so that all the white men may go to war, unless they are too old, and then they take them for counsel. This explains the strange fact that they, with eight millions, have been able to bring superior forces into the field to ours—though we are twenty millions. That will not do. We must overpower them by numbers. The first thing, to that end, is to secure a union of all men who love the republic.

"We owe much to the republic. I certainly do. Beginning as poor as the poorest boy in Oneida county, I have grown to a man who at least holds a high office. It is this freedom for all that is the glory of our institutions, that makes us a great nation. We have a great deal to fight for. When the wisest man that ever lived in the tide of time was arrainged by the people of Athens and condemned to an ignominious death, his friends surrounded him on the night before he was to drink the fatal hemlock, and said, 'Socrates, the way is open to you to escape, and find a home in some island of the Peloponessus.' 'No,' said the philosopher, 'I have raised children and studied the divine philosophy, and learned many arts, and I owe all to the laws of Athens; I will not violate, I will obey those laws. Otherwise I should be as barbarous as the men of Sicily.' Is there one in this great republic, ocean bound, who does not owe as much to its laws? If ever there was any government to live for, or to die for, it is the republic of the United States of North America."

SOLDIER'S WORK-BAG.—A captain of infantry, referring to the wants of soldiers in an encampment, says:

"On the first departure of troops from Boston, there was but one man out of seven hundred that was provided with any facilities for mending clothes, and in all that had gone since then, not more then twenty are thus provided. About these little conveniences for campaigning, which are greater necessities even than uniforms and shirts, nobody will ever think who has not the recollection of the wants described by a soldier in actual service."

Some thoughtful and care-taking ladies, in consultation with those who have had experience of the wants of an encampment, have suggested the following as part of a soldier's out-fit:

The work-bag may be made of new gingham or calico double, with compartments for each article, so that they may be easily got at when time and need press; containing one pair of round-pointed scissors, one paper carpet needles, one skein blue or grey yarn, three hanks strong black linen thread, one spool strong brown thread, two skeins coarse black silk, three dozen porcelain shirt buttons, three dozen black suspender buttons, a piece of wax, one piece of gray twilled tape, a needle case made of new delaine, small, plain and strong, filled with needles and half a paper of pins.

Every article should be good of its kind, and the thread, yarn and silk nicely wound. No fancy work or ornament required.

There are bits of new calico and delaine in every house suitable for the bag and needle case, and the contents as above cost about eighty cents.

CONFEDERATE PRISONERS.—There are now about two hundred rebel prisoners confined in this city, including those of a political character. The old capital is still used as a prison, and has been fitted up with many conveniences. The prisoners are allowed books and newspapers, and are otherwise well and humanely treated. No communication is allowed with them except by special permit of the provost marshal. Prisoners of war and political prisoners are confined in different quarters. Some of the latter, who have lately been released on the oath of allegiance, have been required to enter into bonds not to enter the rebel states or communicate with any one residing in them during the war unless permitted by the secretaries of state or war.—Washington correspondence New York World.

VERY NOBLE.—Thomas Francis Meagher was offered the clerkship of New York—worth many thousands a year. If he would have accepted, the nomination would have been tendered him by all parties. But he declined, that he might go untrammelled to the field of battle. But the gallant soldier has a future. When peace shall have been reinstated, Thomas Francis Meagher shall be among those whom the people will delight to honor.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand: so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair. The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

The Southwestern Campaign.

The recent action of the Cherokee Indians, in joining the rebels will doubtless call the serious attention of the government to our southwestern frontier. These Indians were the most loyal, as well as the most civilized of any of the tribes, removed from the south. Since they, or a majority of them, have united their fortunes with the rebel cause, we have no friendly tribe, in that region to rely upon. The whole territory is to be reconquered. No delay should be permitted in asserting the authority of the government over these tribes, and especially the Cherokees. They number about twenty-five thousand, and their territory forms the southern boundary of Kansas. It is not surprising, therefore, that the people of the latter state are calling loudly upon the general government for protection, as they are threatened upon two sides of their territory—on the south by the Indians and on the east by the Missourians. It is probable, also, that the wild tribes of the plains, west of Kansas, are more or less tinctured with the insanity of this rebellion. The fate of Kansas, after all the sacrifices of her people, may, therefore, be still considered in doubt, unless speedy help be sent to them.

The most effectual means of ridding both Kansas and Missouri of the secessionists is to send a well appointed army into Arkansas and the Indian territory. Without aid from the south, it is evident that the Missouri rebels must speedily subside—without a secession force in Missouri no harm can be done to the people of Kansas. The only route from the south to Missouri now practicable to the rebels, is through western Arkansas and the Indian territory.

It would, therefore, be good policy to strengthen Fremont's army with more mounted rangers, and let them proceed immediately to the Indian territory and take possession of it. On their way they could establish a fort in southwestern Missouri, and leave men and a plenty of artillery for its defence. This would prevent a further irruption of rebels in that direction from Arkansas.

The army then might advance to Fort Smith, on the Arkansas river, which is not more than seventy-five miles from the southern boundary of Missouri. This is also on the eastern boundary of the Indian territory, and once in our possession, we could command the latter territory and western Arkansas. There are fifty thousand half civilized Indians in the territory west of Arkansas, many of whom hold slaves, and it is through the latter interest that they have been lured into rebellion. They should be taught a lesson in this respect that will be remembered in all time.

The occupation of Fort Smith, with a powerful army, and its thorough protection by heavy artillery, once accomplished, it would be a point of offensive operations against the rebels of Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico. We should also be in a situation to chastise the wild tribes of Camanches and Kiowas, who roam the plains westward, and who are beginning to feel that they have no masters. The rebels of New Mexico and Arizona might also be attended from this point.

Looking, therefore, to the future control of our southwestern empire by the general government, as well as the present protection of the loyal people of the southwest, it is evident that the army which is now in pursuit of Price can be used for a far greater and more important object. It ought never to return until the starry banner waves on a line of forts from Missouri to Galveston.

Whether the general government has sufficient thought for the west to provide such an expedition with the necessary outfit, or whether the presidential candidates in the cabinet will permit Fremont to lead it, remains to be seen.

The Eighth Regiment in Chicago.

The Eighth Wisconsin regiment, which for some two months has been in temporary quarters at Camp Randall, Madison, Wisconsin, left their camp at 8 o'clock on Saturday morning, and, after a brief parade through the streets of the capitol city, took the cars of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway for Chicago, en route for St. Louis. The arrival here had been heralded by the daily papers, and the streets of our city were crowded with people awaiting the advent of what had been announced as the crack regiment of Wisconsin. The crowd at the depot was immense, and the people composing it were not to be disappointed in beholding an imposng display.

The Eighth Wisconsin is as fine, if not a finer, body of men than the First, whose advent here all will recollect. The men are heavy, well-built, and inured to the labors of the farm, the shop, and the lumbering country. It is armed with muskets of the best pattern, and uniformed and equipped in the same perfect style which has characterized the bodies previously passing through this place for the east, the Eighth being the first regiment our sister state has furnished for Missouri. Their discipline is good, and the manner in which the manoeuvres were performed while marching through the streets last evening would have been creditable to veteran troops. They have received pay for the services already rendered, and left in good condition mentally and physically, there being but six or eight on the sick list. It took $12,000 to square their account with the government.—Times.

The Tribune says:—

The regiment numbers one thousand and fifty men, and, as a whole, is, we think, as fine looking, well officered, and well drilled, as any regiment which has passed through our city. The men are well built, muscular fellows, and apparently in fine spirits at the prospects of a brush with the rebels. A noticeable feature among them was the Chippewa Eagles, Captain Perkins, a company of first class, stalwart fellows; and the live American Eagle, which they brought with them, was an object of much curiosity. He is a majestic bird, well trained and docile, permitting people to pat his regal head and smooth down his feathers without resistance.

When marching, the eagle is carried at the head of the company, elevated on a perch at the top of a pole. The eagle was caught on the head waters of the Chippewa river, by the Chippewa Indians. Captain Perkins' company take it with them to the war. The men were offered a large sum for it in Madison, but they will not part with it. They swear it shall never be taken by the enemy. No doubt the Chippewa Eagles and their pet will be heard of again.

The Tribune is mistaken when it says that at Janesville "the regiment was supplied with coffee and eatables by the Northwestern road." They were supplied by the people of Janesville and vicinity.

GOING BACK BEFORE THE FLOOD.—The Albany Atlas and Argus, in its extracts from the speeches of Daniel S. Dickinson of a year ago. The regency clique are re producing these extracts now to damage Mr. Dickinson before the people. What donkeys these regency tricksters are, and what fools they must imagine the people to be, in undertaking to humbug them by applying the political issues of a reign of peace to the contingencies of an armed rebellion, menacing the very capital of our country! A few weeks more, however, and there will be an end of this miserable rump of the Albany regency. It goes out like a tallow candle, flickering and sputtering, and with an unpleasant stench; but a little water will quench it.—New York Herald.

☞ It is reported that 50,000 troops are to be sent from the east to the west. We hope they will give us back our western men. They have experience in frontier life, and would be far more efficient than soldiers from the cities of New York and Philadelphia.

TAKING THE VEIL.—Three young ladies of Green Bay were initiated on Sunday last into the monastic order of St. Dominick.—The ceremonies are described as being very solemn.

NOT INDICTED.—Mrs. Priest, one of the parties to the shooting affair in the town of Leeds, Columbia county, has been discharged. The grand jury found no bill against her, as they considered she was strictly acting in self-defence.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,

Last Night's Report.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.

W. J. Packard was arrested here to-day on an order from the state department, as being an alleged emissary from Richmond, where he was connected with Sloat & Co. Packard has represented himself in Cincinnati as a refugee from the south, and lately visited Washington, it is said, on the pretence of giving valuable information to the federal authorities, and had while there ample opportunity to discover the position and strength of our forces. He was sent to Fort Lafayette this evening.

The schooners Ocean Wave, Harriet Ryan and Mecca have been brought as prizes from Hatteras Inlet to the navy yard.

THE OYSTER TRADE.—The Baltimore Sun says:

"The oyster business of Baltimore exhibits a visible diminition in the number of vessels employed in bringing the bivalves to this port the present season, owing to the blockade of the Virginia waters, from whence the best kinds are obtained, and the strict surveillance exercised over all vessels navigating Maryland waters. As a consequence a rise in prices may be expected soon. Last year about three hundred thousand bushels were brought to this city, thereby creating a trade valued at two million dollars. Over four hundred schooners and pungys were engaged in the business of their transportation upon the Chesapeake and its tributaries. Undoubtedly there is a falling off this season, but the trade has for a number of years past annually yielded employment to between four thousand and five thousand men, in the various capacities of boatmen, carters, shockers, tinners, packers, carpenters, laborers, &c.

For the past ten years the exportation of oysters to such important points in the west as Pittsburg, Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati, has been almost exclusively monopolized by Baltimore. The oysters for transportation to these points are generally shocked, put in gallon cans, and hermetically sealed; after which they are closely packed together in boxes holding a dozen cans, which is filled with sawdust, and, during the mild season, with ice, to keep them perfectly fresh and pure. During the winter season they are transported in the shell, being sent in barrels.

The oyster business exists only eight months in the year, the law prohibiting the traffic from May to September. Notwithstanding all the drawbacks of the times, the prospect of the oyster business is fair, and no great scarcity need be apprehended."

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.

The refugees from Norfolk, which arrived to-day on the steamer Louisiana, previous to leaving had been closely searched to prevent their bringing any newspapers, but one passenger secured a Norfolk Day Book, which had the dispatches from New Orleans of the attack on Wilson's Zouaves at Santa Rosa Island. The rebels, a thousand in number, stormed the works in the night, and in an hour had spiked all the guns which were in position, destroyed all the tents but the hospital, and captured ammunition, rations and stores.

Major Israel Vodges, of the United States Second Artillery, recently at Fortress Monroe, was taken prisoner.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 13.

Yesterday afternoon, about fourteen miles south of Rousseau's advance, and eight miles from the rebel encampment on Green River, a detachment of forty men of the 39th Indiana regiment, attacked 300 rebels, half of them cavalry, without loss, killing five, wounding three, and driving the whole rebel force beyond Bacon Creek.

In Col. Rankin's case the magistrates decided that he should be bound over to take his trial at the next assizes, which sits next week.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 12.

The Evening News learns upon unquestionable authority that Messrs. Breckinridge, Preston, Johnston, Deshony, Williams, Haws, Moore, and other secession notables, are organizing a large rebel camp at Prestonburg, Floyd county. It says they have a force of six or seven thousand men, whom they are drilling eight hours per day, and that they are alarming the mountaineers by circulating incredible stories as to the intention of the government. The News asks the government to place promptly the requisite force in the mountains, around which the Union men may rally.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 13.

Secretary Cameron and Adjutant General Thomas passed here at 5.30 P. M., to-day on a special train for St. Louis. The secretary reviewed the troops at Syracuse and Tipton to-day.

The Herald's Fortress Monroe correspondent says the ship John Clark put into Lynn Haven on the 10th, in consequence of a stress of weather, and was fired on by a rebel battery, but was rescued by the steamer Daylight, much to the chagrin of the rebels, who expected an easy prize.

FORT MONROE, Oct. 12.

A party of New York Zouaves, while cutting fuel, were attacked by a rebel scouting party, and driven in with a loss of one wagon. Two rebel steam tugs appeared at the same time on James River.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.

The Norfolk Day Book, received this morning, contains dispatches received from New Orleans, giving an account of a surprise and an attack made on Col. Billy Wilson's Zouaves, on Santa Rosa Island, on the 8th inst. By this account it appears that detachments from several Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama regiments made a landing in the night, and drove in Wilson's pickets. Shortly afterwards a fierce fight began. The Zouaves of Col. Wilson are credited with having fought with great bravery, and the rebels admit a loss of about 40 killed and 80 wounded. The rebels claim to have spiked the guns of the Zouaves, and destroyed all their camp equipage. They also claim to have committed great slaughter among the Zouaves, but give no number of the killed. The rebels also say that they carried off a number of prisoners.

PACIFIC SPRINGS, Oct. 12.

The pony express, with California dates to the 8th inst., passed here this morning.

Business in San Francisco is daily improving.

Gen. Sumner has issued his proclamation, ordering the manning of the United States military forts of the department by volunteers, and concentrating the regular forces at convenient points for their embarkation for Panama. The Los Angelos Star, of the 28th ult., announces the arrival of several families of emigrants from Texas. These are but the advanced portion of some 108 emigrant wagons from the same state. It is stated that Western Texas will be almost depopulated during the present year.

All quiet along the Missouri river this side of Jefferson City.

The Democrat's Jefferson City dispatch, to-night, reports Secretary Cameron and Gen. Thomas as having spent the day with Fremont, at Tipton, and on the way back to St. Louis.

A deserter from Gen. Price has arrived at Jefferson City. He met Price on Wednesday last near Johnstown, Blair county. The rebel army was disaffected, and desertions numerous. This informant thinks if assurances of a fair reception could be conveyed to the rebels, a large proportion would lay down their arms and return to their homes. Their officers tell them repeatedly that they will be hung if caught by the Unionists, and circulate outrageous lies of federal atrocities. Eight or ten other deserters are with this one. Price was believed to intend taking winter quarters in Arkansas. Five hundred sick rebels are reported in Lexington.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.

The Herald's special Washington dispach says reports from Banks' and Stone's column state that the rebels do not appear to be making any demonstrations on the Virginia side of the river.

It is reported that one of our men was killed this morning, in a party from General Smith's command, near Fairfax Court House. One of the rebels was seen to fall from his horse, and several others were picked up and carried away bearing marks of our sharpshooters.

Intelligence from our Mexican minister is to the effect that the Mexican government has asked for a loan from our government of from five to ten millions. Mr. Corwin regards it highly important just at this time that Mexico should have the money to pay interest on her English debt, and thus release her from her present embarrassment.

The Herald's despatch says our government is determined to stand by Mexico at all hazards and protect her against encroachments by foreign powers. Our government has addressed a communication to England, France and Spain, to know what their intentions are, to which no response has been yet received.

Copies of letters from various Indian chiefs to the government agent have been received, all of which breathe loyal sentiments and a determination to stand by the government. Efforts are being made to hold a conference on the Osage river, with all the chiefs, in regard to their future policy. Rebel agents are very busy among them, but it is stated all the Indians who are in the field against us, have been coerced.

Capt. M. Bryant of the 3d Michigan volunteers, who was arraigned and tried by a general court martial, upon the charge of violating the 42d article of war, in leaving his camp without the consent of commanding officer, and remaining out all night, was found not guilty.

Tribune's despatch.—The following Ohio troops have been sent to Central Kentucky during the last ten days: Now at Camp Dick Robinson, 14th, Col. Stedman; 17th, Col. Covrell; 31st, Col. Walker. At Nicholasville, 38th, Col, Bradley; 21st, Colonel Norton. At Cynthiana, 19th regiment, Col. Van Derneret. At Olympian spring, 2d regiment, Col. Harris. The 15th regiment, Col. Dickie, and the 18th, Col. Gibson, are with Gen. Anderson. One battery of artillery, Col. Barnett. 1st regiment Ohio volunteers, left Cincinnati October 9th, for Camp Dick Robinson, and a solid battery left on the 10th. The 37th regiment, Col. Liber, left on the 9th for Western Virginia. On Friday the 44th regiment, Col. Smith, had orders to leave their camp at Springfield, Ohio, for Western Virginia.

The mother of Jackson, who murdered Ellsworth, was arrested Sunday for keeping a rendezvous for rebel spies, near Prospect Hill.

The government is about erecting permanent barracks in Washington for sixty thousand troops.

The troops in Western Virginia are to be paid off soon.

It is reported that Gen. Mitchell will be put in command of an expedition to drive the rebels out of Cumberland Gap, thence to carry the war into Tennessee. Zollicoffer has withdrawn all his troops to and beyond Cumberland Gap.

The Times dispatch says the rebels in considerable force showed themselves on Saturday before Gen. Hancock's headquarters, with a large Parrott gun, flanked on each side by brass howitzers, but retired without firing. This morning they appeared in some force on Prospect Hill, near Great Falls, but after a short stay retired.

The Herald states that Wm. Byrd, late clerk in the auditor's office, and a man named Martin, lately factotum of Jake Thompson, have been arrested and imprisoned in Richmond as spies. Both are traitors.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 11.

Gibson's battery, which recently came in from Utah, consisting of two 12-pound howitzers and four 6-pounders, has been attached to Gen. Lane's brigade, by order of the war department.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 14.

Sec'y Cameron and Adjt. Gen. Thomas arrived last night. The secretary reviewed the 8th Wisconsin regiment, Col. Murphy, which had just arrived by steamboat, before Barnum's Hotel, this forenoon.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 13.

Twelve of the 11th regiment of New York Zouaves were, yesterday, taken by the rebels a short distance above Newport News. Lieut. Zeelen, who commanded the party, who were in quest of fuel, is under arrest for cowardly behavior.

BUFFALO, Oct. 14.

Friday night the schooner Sasco, from Chicago, struck on the bar at the mouth of the creek, and was carried on the breakwater, where she lies full of water. Her cargo, consisting of 18,000 bushels of wheat, is ruined.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.

THE APPROACHES TO NEW ORLEANS.—The Philadelphia Press says:

The river at the Balize divides into four branches, discharging themselves respectively through Pass l'Outre, Northeast Pass, South Pass, and Southwest Pass. Above, where these four outlets begin, there are two forts, almost opposite to each other, named Jackson and St. Philip. When this rebellion broke out they were not efficiently mounted, and could easily have been taken. What additions the traitor Twiggs has made to their defense is not known. If they are well mounted it would be very difficult for a fleet to pass up the main body of the river.

There are, however, three other modes of approach by water to the city. The one is through lakes Borgne and Pontchartrain, another up the Atchafalaya to Berwick Bay and thence by bayous Torel and Plaquemine to Iberville, one hundred miles above New Orleans, and a third by way of Grand Pass and bayous Lafourche to Donaldsonville, eighty miles above the city. By the first named route, vessels of from fifteen to eighteen feet draught can be brought to the Lake House, located five miles from the city. The troops landed there can be taken up the canal by water, or can march at once up the shell road, the prettiest road in America. Along it any amount of troops could be marched. On either side of it or the canal, which run parallel, the ground falls away into a swamp covered with dense undergrowth, affording magnificent covers for skirmishers or riflemen. These, however, could be easily brushed. There is not a spot along the whole five miles of road upon which there is any kind of fortification save barricades.

It is along this route that a heavy trade is carried on between Mobile and the Crescent City; the length of these two lakes, including the Rigolette, is about 110 miles. At the entrance of Borgue, the easternmost of the two, lie three islands known as Cat, Ship and Horse islands. Upon the main, right opposite to them, is Mississippi City, the post said to have been lately seized and fortified by our troops. Recent advices indicate that earthworks are being thrown up on Cat and Ship islands. These, with batteries constructed upon the northeastern tongue of the parish of St. Bernard, would effectually cut off all commerce between these two cities, and prevent the entrance and capture of any vessel coming from or going to sea. At least a single armed vessel, in addition, would effectually close the wide strait where Borgne debouches into the Gulf.

The Atchafalaya affords, at the barrel stakes, only 12 feet water, but above that any depth needed, thirty or forty miles.—Through it, and the Plaquemine, vessels of that draught can pass to Iberville, into the Mississippi, at any time from the 1st of December to the 1st of June, when the river is full.

Vessels of ten feet draught can go up the Bayou Lafourche during the same season of the year.

Moreover, the western extremity of Borgue comes within twelve miles of the city itself, and from thence means could be found to march troops and munitions of war, notwithstanding the swampy character of the country for the greater part of the route.

New Orleans can easily be taken, for the confederates have not the means of defending all these flank approaches, as well as the approach by the main river.

Doubtless other modes of access, as easy and practicable as those pointed out, can be found, should it become necessary.

PRICE.—Further intelligence from western Missouri fails to dispel the existing uncertainty respecting Price's designs. He is now reported to be about one hundred miles south of Fremont's, which has advanced beyond Tipton, and is in swift pursuit.

The report that Price and McCulloch had joined forces, is contradicted by the statement that such a junction is expected by the rebels to take place at Sac river. This could not occur till about the 20th inst., before which time Fremont will probably compel a battle.

The public patience may be additionally taxed by the fact that the telegraphists are forbidden to tell us of Fremont's movements. This, however, cannot add materially to the principal delay of intelligence experienced in getting from the army across the long reach of country beyond the telegraph lines.—St. Louis Democrat, 12th.

CONNECTICUT TOBACCO.—This has been an excellent season for tobacco—a crop amounting to over half a million of dollars annually in Hartford county alone. It has ripened well the present year, the rich yellowing tinge, showing its complete fitness for the knife, appearing upon the fields as early as the 10th inst. The crop is already gathered in most admirable condition, and the leaf, free from injury by the hail and fierce winds, presents an evenness and perfection not often witnessed. This year's crop will be a favorite one with the manufacturers, on account of its perfection in every respect.—Hartford Courant.

WHO OWNED THE CATALINE.—The steamer Cataline was chartered by the government at a good round figure, with the agreement if she was lost in the government service, a good round price would be allowed for her. Singular coincidence; she was very soon destroyed by fire, and the government of course called on for the good round sum in question. Suspicions of foul play were then entertained, and the government set about inquiries. The first inquiry was, as to who were the owners, on which point the Washington special of the Times throws the following light:

"If I am not much mistaken, the records of the congressional committee have made that matter clear. The owner of the Cataline was Hon. O. B. Matteson, of Utica, who purchased her for eight thousand dollars. Shortly afterwards he sold her to a company of four persons, viz:—Thurlow Weed, John E. Develin, O. B. Matteson and Gilbert C. Davidson.

These gentlemen paid Mr. Matteson eighteen thousand dollars for the boat, the sum of the purchase money being divided into four notes, each for four thousand five hundred dollars. Each of the four gentlemen named became the indorser of three notes and the maker of one. Shortly after this purchase was made, the boat was chartered to the government. By this speculation Matteson appears to have made five thousand five hundred dollars clear, besides retaining one-fourth interest in the lucrative charter which he and his confreres were enabled to obtain.

A BRIGHT EXAMPLE FOR OUR YOUNG MEN.—The young Gov. Sprague, of Rhode Island, a millionaire, not satisfied with his liberal contributions of money to the cause of the Union in this war, was among the first to offer his individual services in the field, and was among the bravest of the brave on the bloody hills of Manassas.—Lately, in explaining his non-attendance at an Agricultural fair in Vermont, he writes: "Permit me to say, and especially to the young men of Vermont—that class whom I am trying to represent in my own person—that the glorious privilege of doing some real service to one's country now exists," and that "a life time may never present another such occasion."

Col. DeVilliers—now brigadier general under Gen. Rosencrans—has arrived in Milwaukee.

MINNESOTA TROOPS.—The 2d Minnesota regiment will pass through Janesville tomorrow forenoon, on its way to the seat of war.

County Superintendent of Schools.

UNION, Wis., Oct. 12, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Please present the name of Prof. Edward Searing, of Union, to your readers for the office of county superintendent of common schools, and oblige MANY VOTERS.

READING FOR THE SOLDIERS.—We would suggest to our citizns generally that they can do a good act by depositing old papers and magazines at the post office, for Camp Tredway. Anything, almost, that you have read and are done with, will be thankfully received by the soldiers in camp there.—The evenings now are long even to us who have something to do to engage our attention; and how much longer are they to those who are shut out from all opportunity of relieving the monotony of camp life? Send them something to read every day. When you go or send to the post office, send some reading matter of some kind for the volunteers. It will be no sacrifice on your part, and will be a kindness to them they will appreciate.

SERMON AT THE CAMP.—Rev. Mr. Kinney preached to the soldiers at Camp Tredway yesterday afternoon. It was a very pleasant day, and in addition to the military, there were a large number of citizens present. The sermon was on the duties and responsibilities of the war, and was an eloquent and powerful effort.

FROST.—The first frost sufficient to kill tomato and squash vines, was experienced in this vicinity on Saturday night last.—With frosty nights we may look for Indian Summer and pleasant weather.

CAMP TREDWAY, Oct. 14, 1861.

Every member of the "Ruger Guards" will report himself at headquarters of the company, at Camp Tredway, on or before one o'clock P. M., Oct 15th.

Per order EDWARD RUGER, Captain.

☞ Any able bodied man wishing to join the "Ruger Gaurds" can do so by making application soon.

EDWARD RUGER, Captain.

THE FOOD REQUIREMENTS OF EUROPE.—It is abundantly evident that Europe will be compelled to take from the United States during the coming nine months, all the grain and food that can be conveyed to the seaboard and shipped in sea-going vessels, and to pay for the same in gold. Opinions vary as to the exact amount of breadstuffs which will be required for the consumption of the people of England and France over and above what has been yielded by the harvest of those countries. One estimate is 175,000,000 bushels of grain, another 150,000,000. Messrs Hallett, in their circular, estimate that France will require 80,000,000, and England 64,000,000, total of 144,000,000 bushels, or 3,000,0000 per week for forty-eight weeks. It is questionable whether all the railroads and lake and river shipping in this country, and all the vessels employed in the trade between the United States and maritime Europe, suffice to transport such an enormous quantity of produce. It is evident that, with such a movement eastward, the exchanges may be regarded as permanently fixed in our favor, for a year to come, and the steady flow of specie from Europe to the United States certain and reliable.—N. Y. Herald.

THE COTTON-WANT CRISIS IN ENGLAND.—"Coming events" are "casting their shadow before them" in Boltoc, and that, too, in a somewhat dark and extensive form. Short time is not actually adopted as to a set number of working hours, but production is very materially lessened in most cotton spinning and cloth manufacturing concerns; power loom weavers waiting a week at once for warps, and one very large cotton spinning concern, that of Messrs. Dolling & Stade, is closing altogether. The firm have six mills. In these they have seven steam engines of two hundred and thirty horse-power, and had in their employment, at midsummer, 531 females and 256 males—total 787. In parting with the work-people, they are told to seek employment immediately, anywhere, as there is no probability of the mills resuming work under the existing interest. We regret to state that Messrs. Jackson, of Queen street mill, Lancaster, commenced running three days per week this week, and will not start their engines till Thursday.—Preston Guardian, Sept. 20th.

A STRANGE COINCIDENCE.—FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 5.—Lexington was still full, yesterday morning, of stories about the 14th Ohio, which recently passed through that city. A very singular coincidence occurred there during the stay of the 14th, which, more sadly than anything else I have heard, illustrates the degeneracy of some of Kentuck's noblest names. Anxious to pay all possible respect to the memory of the 'Great Commoner,' whose fame Ohio yet guards as jealously as his own Kentucky, Col. Steedman marched his regiment out to the tomb of Henry Clay. They formed silently around the grave, and, at the very moment these loyal troops from another state, on their way to defend Kentucky from invasion, reverently presented arms at the tomb of Kentucky's greatest statesman, the degenerate son, James B. Clay, was brought into the railroad depot, a prisoner in the hands of other loyal troops, arrested on the charge of treason!—Cor. Cincinnati Gazette.

A NEW CLASS OF REFUGEES IN CANADA.—The Montreal Herald notices the settlement in that city of some wealthy citizens from the United States. One gentleman from Florida is there, who fled because of his northern sympathies; another, recently a banker in New York, doing business mainly with the south, who takes himself, his son and $250,000 to Montreal, in fear of lodging in Fort Lafayette; a third, who has made a very large deposit in one of the city banks, and seeks to obtain naturalization as a British subject and to invest his capital in ships; and a fourth, whose brother is in the rebel army, and who settles down with his family and fortune in Canada, to be out of harm's way.

DARNESTOWN.—This village has of late occupied a conspicuous place in notices of the campaign on the Upper Potomac. A correspondent of the New York World thus describes it:

Darnestown is a representative of the thriftless little villages scattered through the rural districts of Maryland and Virginia.—A few decaying, paintless houses; an old tavern; two cheap groceries; a dozen tumble down fences: these, with pigs, negroes and chickens, constitute the make up of the place. There may be a church and school house, but I havn't seen them yet. I had nearly forgotten the natives, who are as stolid and shiftless as the same race of other chivalrous localities. Few of them know the height of "Sugarloaf," the distance to Great Falls, or other local facts which Yankee boys of ten would naturally learn and remember. Such people seem to have neither sense, sentiment, nor faith; only a kind of blind affiliation with the south, and hopeless devotion to the decaying system which is their heritage and curse.

A NOVEL MODE OF FELLING TREES.—A correspondent writing from an encampment near Mount Vernon, says:

I wish you could see these Maine boys cut trees; they have a method by which they can bring down two or three at a time. They will take a lot of trees standing in a line, and first cut the one in the rear, until it bends sufficient to rest upon the one immediately in front, and so on until they will sometimes have half a dozen readly to fell at once, just as the children make what they call a "shake" with bricks. With aid of the pressure of one or two others, and a few blows more from their axe, down they all come, five or six in number, in about the same time it would take you or myself to get one to bend. What a change it makes in the appearance of the country. Go out in the morning, and you may see a beautiful valley covered with trees. Come to the same locality again at evening, and you will be astonished to see what a havoc the woodman's axe has made during the day.

TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION.—We heard yesterday of an an act which for heartless and cold-blooded atrocity stands almost without a parallel. A worthy citizen, of advanced years and unblemished reputation, an old resident of this community, lay on his death-bed. In the awful hour, when his weeping wife and children stood around him, and the damps of mortality were settling rapidly around his brow, the deep stillness which prevailed was suddenly and rudely interrupted. An inhuman creditor of the dying man forced his way into the chamber and to the bedside, and, utterly unmindful of the awfully impressive scene before him, laid upon the bosom of the dying and unconscious debtor a legal summons to answer for a small indebtedness. Within an hour the debter was a corpse. This incident, which is told to us on undoubted authority, exceeds in heartless atrocity the wildest creations of fiction itself.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says a soldier who was attempting to escape from a squad that was endeavoring to arrest him, leaped from the suspension bridge into the Ohio, a distance of seventy feet. He struck the water feet foremost, went down, but soon came to the surface and struggled for life. A boat put out and rescued him after he had gone down the second time. Whisky caused his troubles.

SHARP PRACTICE BY MRS. GREENHOW.—A part of the gossip of sympathetic female secessiondom at Washington, is the miscarriage of the financial endeavor of Mrs. Greenhow to have her washing done at the expense of the government, and her grocer's bill for candles liquidated at the war department. Imprisoned in her own house, she took a southern view of the obligation of her jailor to pay her domestic expenses. Her laundry bill and an account for candles were actually presented to Mr. Cameron for allowance.

SWEARING REBELS.—Prentice says: "It seems absurd to swear a bitter secessionist not to be guilty of disloyalty. You might as well swear a mad dog not to bite."

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT PORT WASHINGTON.—On the 8th inst., a wagon belonging to N. Mammer, at Ozaukee, capsized in descending a hill. Three small children of Mr. Mammer's were thrown to the ground, and seriously, it is feared fatally, injured.

COAL IN PIERCE COUNTY.—The editor of the Prescott Journal, published in Pierce county, has had left with him a lump of coal exhumed in that vicinity. The same paper announces an oil spring near Prescott.

The governor of Illinois has arranged with the government for $1,000,000 in money, 6,000 muskets, 5,000 rifles, and 14 batteries of rifled cannon, for the armament of Illinois.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, OCTOBER 14, 1861.

The wheat market, under more favorable advices from the lake shore, was quite active to-day and prices may be quoted a trifle better. Establishing the grade of a portion of Jackson street, and for constructing sidewalks in front of lots on said street, in the first ward of the city of Janesville.

THE Mayor and Common Council of the city of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SEC. 1. The grade of Jackson street in the first ward of said city, from the north line of Bluff street to the east line of Madison street, as surveyed and marked on a plan and profile thereof, made by Edward Ruger, city engineer, and filed in the office of the city clerk, on the 12th day of April, A D 1861, is hereby established.

SEC. 2. A sidewalk is hereby required to be built, 6 feet in width, of 2 by 6 inch pine plank, underlaid with three strips of sleepers, of 2 by 4 inch pine scantling, in front of each lot numbered seventy-six (76), seventy-seven (77), seventy-eight (78), seventy-nine (79), eighty-five (85) and parcel of lot eighty-six (86) lying south of the railroad track, in Smith & Bailey's addition to Janesville. The sidewalk in front of said lots numbered 76 and 77, in Smith & Bailey's addition, to be constructed with upright posts, 4 by 4 inches, of pine, eight feet apart, firmly set into the ground, on the eastern or outer edge of the plank and extending three feet above the walk, with a railing on top of posts, 2 by 4 inches, securely fastened to each post; said posts to be let into the plank and fastened to sills and charred at the bottom to the depth set in the ground.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

CHAPTER 242.

AS AMENDED BY CHAPTER 1, EXTRA SESSION.

AN ACT to amend the General Banking Law, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

The People of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, with the thereunto belonging amendment, (see chapter 98 of the general laws of 1858,) is hereby amended as follows: by striking out the following words: "Said stocks to be valued at a rate to be estimated and governed by the average rate at which said stocks have been sold in the city of New York, within the next six months preceding the time when such stocks may be left, on deposit with the comptroller." By striking out the words "equal to," and inserting after the words "not exceeding," the words "in value." By striking out the following words: "But such public stocks shall in all cases be, or be made to be equal to a stock producing six per cent per annum; and it shall not be lawful for the bank comptroller to take such stock at a rate above its par value, nor above its current market value in the city of New York at the time of deposite, by such person or association of persons:" and by inserting in lieu thereof the following; "and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stock which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks; but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks:" so that the said section shall henceforth read as follows: "Whenever, hereafter, any person or association of persons, formed for the purpose of banking under the provisions of this chapter, shall duly assign and transfer in trust to the treasurer of this state, any portion of the public stocks issued or to be issued by the United States or any state stocks, on which full interest is annually paid, such person or association of persons shall be entitled to receive from the bank comptroller an amount of such circulating notes of different denominations, registered and countersigned, and not exceeding in value the amount of public stocks assigned and tranferred as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the bank comptroller to issue for public stocks, which have been ranging at or above par during the last six months, and up to the time of deposite in the New York market, circulating notes up to the par value of said stocks, but the comptroller shall not issue for public stocks ranging below par in said market, more circulation than ninety per cent of the current market value of said stocks at the time of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the average market value during the last six months; and for such stocks as during the last six months have been at and above as well as below par, the comptroller shall not issue more than ninety per cent of the average value during the last six months, nor in any event more than ninety per cent of its market value on the day of deposite, nor more than ninety per cent of the par value of such stocks: Provided, that if in the opinion of the bank comptroller, together with the governor and the secretary of state, any stocks offered shall be deemed insecure, they shall not be received as such securities under the provisions of this act; and provided, further, that from and after the first day of December, 1861, the bank comptroller shall not receive as security for circulating bank notes, any other public stocks than those issued by the state of Wisconsin and the United States.

SEC. 2. Any public stocks described in the preceding section, and issued at a rate of interest less than five per cent per annum, to be receivable by the bank comptroller, shall be made to be equal to stocks producing five per cent per annum.

SEC. 3. Section 40 of chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by inserting between the words "located" and "to," in the 19th line of said section, the words "or to the judge at chambers."

SEC. 4. Every bank and banking association now organized in this state, and all banks and banking associations that shall be organized before the 1st of day December, 1861, except such banks and banking associations as are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall, on or before said first day of December next, appoint an agent, who shall keep an office in the city of Milwaukee or in the city of Madison, for the redemption of all circulating notes issued by such bank or banking association, which shall be presented to such agent for payment or redemption.

SEC. 5. The appointment of such agent shall be made in writing, and such written appointment shall be delivered to the bank comptroller on or before said first day of December next, who shall file the same in his office. If any bank or banking association shall neglect or refuse to appoint such agent within the time above mentioned, the bank comptroller shall appoint such agent for such bank or banking association.

SEC. 6. The bank comptroller shall, immediately after said first day of December next, during such time as he may deem advisable, publish a list of such agents in one daily newspaper published in the city of Madison, and in one daily newspaper published in the city of Milwaukee, the expense whereof shall be equally divided among the several banks or banking associations so published, and be paid by them to the comptroller on demand, under penalty of forfeiture of one hundred dollars, to be collected and applied as provided in respect to the forfeiture named in section 19, chapter 71, of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 7. Every bank or banking association hereafter organized, shall before receiving any circulating notes from the bank comptroller, appoint an agent for the purposes of this act; and such appointment shall be immediately published in the manner aforesaid, at the expense of such bank or banking association, to be collected in the manner above provided.

SEC. 8. Appointments of agents made in pursuance of this act, may be revoked and new appointments of agents made from time to time, by delivering such revocation and appointment to the bank comptroller, who shall cause the same to be published as before provided.

SEC. 9. It shall be lawful for any number of banks or banking associations, authorized by this act, to appoint an agent to associate together for raising a joint fund, to be placed in the hands of their common agent for the redemption of their circulating notes, in the city of Milwaukee or Madison, and also the circulating notes of other banks in such manner, and under such regulations as may be agreed upon, and to employ such agents and clerks as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of such common agency; but nothing in this section contained shall authorize the redemption or purchase by such agency of any circulating notes at a rate of discount greater than is herein provided for, nor relieve such banks from any duty or liability required or imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. Every such bank or banking association in this state, except such banks and banking associations as now are or may hereafter be located in the cities of Milwaukee and Madison, shall redeem and pay on demand, in the lawful money of the United States, all circulating notes issued by such banks or banking associations, presented for redemption at the office of the agent of such bank or banking association, during the usual hours of business of bankers, between the hours of ten and three o'clock, at a rate of discount not exceeding three-fourths of one per cent.

SEC. 11. Every bank or banking association, whose agent shall neglect or refuse to redeem its notes on demand, as aforesaid, shall, on proof being made to the bank comptroller of such neglect or refusal, by the affidavit of the person who presented said notes for redemption or payment, and on depositing in his office the notes so presented, be subject to the same penalties, and be proceeded against in the same manner, as is now provided by law for cases where the circulating notes of any bank or banking association are protested for non-payment, unless the comptroller shall be satisfied that there is a good and legal defence against the payment of such notes.

SEC. 12. Every bank and banking association shall redeem its circulating notes as now provided by law, but in case of neglect or refusal to redeem its notes on presentation at its counter, and of protest therefor, such bank or banking association, if not located within the city of Milwaukee or the city of Madison, shall not be liable to the holder of such notes for damages: Provided, it shall within fifteen days after receiving notice from the comptroller to pay the same, redeem said notes in the lawful money of the United States, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum; Provided, that the officer or officers of such bank or banking association so neglecting or refusing to redeem its notes on demand, may endorse upon the bills or package of bills so presented, an acknowledgement of such presentation and refusal, and waiving protest upon the same; and such endorsement shall be held as evidence of the statement therein made.

SEC. 13. No bank or banking association shall hereafter receive upon the deposite of bonds, circulating notes to an amount exceeding three times its bona fide cash capital actually paid in, and the bank comptroller is hereby authorized and required to ascertain what the actual cash capital of any bank or banking association applying for circulation, except in exchange for mutilated bills, may be, and for this purpose he is authorized to examine any person on oath, and to compel answers under oath, from any officer or stockholder of any bank or banking association so applying, or any other person.

SEC. 14. No bank or banking association shall hereafter be organized in this state, nor shall any more circulating notes be issued to any bank or banking association in this state, unless said bank or banking association shall have a bona fide cash capital of at least fifteen thousand dollars actually paid in, which shall remain in such bank or banking association as capital, and employed in legitimate banking at the place where the bank is located; and it is hereby declared that the bonds deposited with the bank comptroller shall not be considered as any evidence of the existence of capital in any such bank or banking association, nor of the amount and extent of such capital; and it is hereby made the duty of the comptroller, before issuing any more circulating notes to any such bank or banking association now organized, or that shall be hereafter organized, except in exchange for mutilated notes, to satisfy himself by an examination under oath of an officer or stockholder of such bank or banking association that it has fully complied with the provisions of this section, and of the next preceding section of this act, and for the purposes of such examination the comptroller, or in his absence the deputy comptroller, is hereby authorized to administer oaths; Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any bank to issue circulating notes to any greater amount than its nominal capital.

SEC. 15. From and after the first day of December next it shall not be lawful for any bank or banking association, banker, broker, company or corporation, to circulate or attempt to circulate, or to pay out as money, any bill, note or other evidence of debt, issued or purporting to have been issued by any bank, banking association, company, corporation or individual located or residing out of this state, unless said bill, or note or evidence of debt shall, for the last six months preceding such circulating or paying out, have been redeemable in the city of New York or Boston in current money of the United States, at a rate of discount not exceeding three fourths of one per cent; and the decision of the bank comptroller as to the rate of such discount shall be final and conclusive. Every bank or banking association, banker or broker, corporation or company, offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit for each and every offense the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered with costs of suit in the name and for the use of any person who shall sue for the same and prosecute such suit to judgment in any court having cognizance thereof.

SEC. 16. Each and every person owning or holding stock in any bank or banking association, who shall sell, transfer or assign his stock or any portion thereof, in any such bank or banking association, shall be held, and remain for the term of six months from and after such sale, transfer or assignment, as aforesaid, personally liable to the amount of stock so as aforesaid sold, transferred or assigned by him for the payment of all the debts and liabilities of such bank or banking association, existing at the time of such sale, transfer or assignment.

SEC. 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 18. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with, or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 19. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, in the year 1861, at all the usual places of holding elections in this state, for the election of all officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people, and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

SEC. 20. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words: "For Amendments to the Banking Law;" or "Against Amendments to the Banking Law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be canvassed, and the secretary of state shall immediately, on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session, and he shall also deliver to the state treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject immediately after the completion of the canvass.

Chapter 242, approved April 13, 1861; Chapter 1, Extra Session, approved May 25, 1861.

Said election to be conducted, the votes canvassed and returns made in accordance with the provisions of chapter 7 of the Revised Statutes of 1858.
